Annual Gathering at Washburn's

A large gathering of friends and neighbors took place at Washburn's on Oct. 6, it being their annual picnic under the leadership of L. Washburn. The weather being all that could be desired, a most enjoyable time was spent. After a most excellent dinner provided by the ladies, the afternoon was spent in races and games amid a shower of oranges and candy for everybody. Part of the crowd then filled the school-room in order to listen to a short programme. The singing of Miss Hattie Irwin and Miss Edna Preston, and an address by Rev. W. G. Swayne of Athens, were much enjoyed. At the conclusion of the entertainment, supper was served and the people dispersed to their homes, taking with them the memory of a jolly good time.

The races resulted as follows:

Eight Years For Manslaughter.

Albert E. Suddard, charged with the murder of an elderly woman at Kingston, was found guilty of manslaughter by the jury with a recommendation to mercy. It was shown that Suddard, who is a young man, was intoxicated when the crime was committed. He is a married man with a family.

His Lordship Justice Lennox imposed a sentence of eight years imprisonment in Kingston Penitentiary.

Eugene Queen, of Woodburn, employed as cheesemaker near Findlay station, was killed by being struck by an eastbound fruit train at a crossing a short distance from his place of residence. He was en route to Gananoque to summon a physician for a party who was ill in the house and in the darkness apparently did not see the approach of the train.

Do as Mr. Gard

Mr. Anson A. Gard, the well known Litterateur of Ottawa, called the Wandering Yankee, says in an unsolicited testimonial for ZUTOO Tablets:

"Zutoo Tablets stop my headaches so completely that I do not mind having them any more."

No need for any one to suffer from headache if they do as Mr. Gard does and take Zutoo

The Boys' Fair

Bovish interest in Canadian patriotic problems has been aroused to a remarkable extent, the boys' fair held on Saturday evidencing a practical sympathy for the great work of maintaining the Canadian Red Cross Corps at the front. The youngsters met and organized, electing Hope Swayne President, Leonard Johnston, Secretary, and Lyman Judson Treasurer. They built a judge's stand in the pasture-field behind the post office, stacked off a speed-ring and improvised a ticket-office out of dry-goods cases, where they charged one cent admittance.

A pony race between Leonard Johnston and Arthur Shaw was one of the amusing events; another was the boxing bout refereed by Wm. Usher, Jr. Foot races were held and Richard Campo acted as starter and judge for these and also the pony race.

After paying for prizes, the boys had a surplus of $2.75 which they turned in to the local branch of the Red Cross Society.

Lappan—Derriagh.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 9:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Sept. 29th, at St. Barnaby's R. C. church, Brewer's Mills, when Mr. John Vincent Lappan, of Lansdowne, and Miss Eliza Derriagh of Seely's Bay, were quietly married by Rev. Father Traynor. The bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss A. Ives, of Kingston, while Mr. Francis Lappan, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony the young couple motored to Gananoque where they had dinner.

They left on the afternoon boat for Clayton on route to Syracuse, N.Y., and other points. On their return they will take up residence in Moortown. The groom is one of Lansdowne's most popular young men and his many friends wish him and his young bride happiness on their journey through life.

What might have been a serious accident occurred Monday afternoon in front of J. J. McCann's store, at Westport. Mr. Edwin Bishop Newboro, was riding a bicycle and just as he turned the corner, Mr. Thos. Bird stepped out on the walk. In trying to dodge the pedestrian Bishop lost his balance, his shoulder striking the plate glass front and smashed the glass. His head was cut by broken glass but he was able to wheel home.

Lose Infant Son

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hudson, Glen Morris, are sympathizing with them in their sorrow over the death of their infant son, Harry Burns, aged two months, who died on Thursday evening, October 7.

The funeral was on Friday afternoon and the remains were conveyed to Ballycane. The little casket was coaxed with flowers contributed by kind friends and neighbors.

Judgment for Mullarkey

An action was taken against J. P. Mullarkey, of Montreal, by E. A. and G. M. Leamy of Ottawa and Hull. Mr. Mullarkey sues to the Messrs. Leamy a contract on the Canadian Northern, and a dispute arising, Messrs. Leamy sued Mr. Mullarkey for $43,000.

Judge Charbonneau on Sept. 21st rendered judgment at Montreal, dismissing the action with cost.

October Rod and Gun

The "Carnivora as Destroyers of Game" is the subject of a thoughtful article by Edward T. Martin in October issue of Rod and Gun in Canada published at Woodstock, Ont. by W. J. Taylor Limited. H. C. Haddon contributes a serio-comic Western tale entitled "The Desperado" while among the actual "been there" experiences may be mentioned Sport in the Tomogonops: The Hunt for the Lost Moose in New Brunswick; Experiences at a Winter Camp in the Laurentians; A Trip by Motor Boat after Moose in Northern Alberta and The First Day out the latter being an account of a day's shooting partridges by "Bill and Billie" contributed by F. V. Williams who is also the designer of the October cover. The regular departments are as usual splendidly maintained and the whole issue is one that will make a strong appeal to sportsmen and lovers of outdoor life.

Several bequests to servant and others are provided under the will of the late Mrs. E. W. Cox of Toronto which was filed for probate by the National Trust Company in the Surrogate Court a few days ago. The lady's personal estate is valued at $44,735.28, but under the will of her husband, Edward W. Cox, who died last year, she was entitled to a life interest in his estate, with authority to dispose of a portion of it under her own will. This portion, which may amount to $150,000, will be disposed of as directed by Mrs. Cox.

The will makes the following provisions. S. F. Hill, private secretary, $10,000; William Richards chauffeur, $5,000; Isabel Sloane, companion, $1,000; Flora Robertson, cook, $200; Margaret McLean, housemaid, $200; Mrs. Edith Davidson laundress, $200; Alexander Beach gardener, $100. The residue of the estate is divided equally between the testator's mother, Mrs. Louise Brown; her aunt, Hattie Jobbitt; her brother, Charles Brown, and her brother's wife, Daisy.

It is easy to let a cold hang on. At night we are sure it's gone by morning and so on from day to day. It's dangerous. Take Allen's Cough Balsam and obtain prompt relief.

Livingstone—Jarvis.

The marriage took place Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, "Pine Grove," near Soperton, of Mr. Bert. Livingstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mal Livingstone, of Athens, and Miss Adeline Jarvis, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jarvis. The home was nicely decorated with flowers and evergreens and an arch backed with flowers and white bells. There were no attendants. Rev. Mr. Calvert officiated.

Death of John Gainford

Another old resident of Harlem passed away at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, in the person of John Gainford, in his 64th year. The deceased had been failing for some years, but twelve months ago lost the use of his limbs and he gradually failed, dying on the 6th day of October. The remains were brought to the home of his brother, George, of Athens, thence to Harlem cemetery.

He is survived by Mrs. B. Lester of Renfrew, Mrs. John Monk of Watertown who are sisters and by one brother, Mr. George Gainford of Athens. Mrs. C. H. Wright of Waddington was unable to attend on account of having just left a hospital where she had undergone an operation.

At the church the mourners were met by the old friends and neighbors of deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dickinson of Newbo.
