

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CHATHAM COMPANY, 17 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

DISTRICT

ROMNEY.

The plan of the services for the coming year for the Romney circuit has just been issued.

Mrs. W. F. Wickwire has been in Chatham to see her sister-in-law, Mrs. Watson, who has been at the hospital for some time, and who is not expected to recover.

Miss Stella Coatsworth, of the Manson Campbell Company, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Sydney Coatsworth, who has been in Toronto, returned home last week.

Court of Revision was held Saturday at the Town Hall.

Dr. Hillier, of Leamington, called at Mr. R. G. Coatsworth's last week.

The doctor came in his new automobile.

Mr. Gordon Malott, of Quinn, accompanied by his sister, Miss Eva, visited at George Robinson's Sunday.

Salem church will hold their anniversary services on Sept. 29 and 30. Miss Bessie and Master David Robertson, of Hamilton, are spending the summer with their uncle, Harry Robinson.

Mr. C. Dawson and little daughter Bertha have returned to their home in Newcastle, Ill.

Messrs. Tom and John Imrie spent Sunday at the scene of the nitroglycerine explosion at Essex.

Misses Bessie Robertson and Doris Lane visited friends at Kingsville on Sunday.

We are glad to see that Mrs. Joe Dawson is able to be out.

Farmers report that if they had not drilled in other grain with their wheat they would have had a good crop of wheat.

WHEN YOU ASK FOR

SURPRISE

A PURE HARD SOAP.

INSIST ON RECEIVING IT.

Dr. Neil Smith

DENTIST

Office over A. J. McCall & Co's Drug Store
Cor. King and Fifth Sts.
Phone 104.

A RUSH

For Hand-painted CHINA in Chocolate Sets and all other small pieces try this Store.

I purchased a large shipment for June, but did not receive it until July; and to dispose of it I am selling at killing prices! What is nicer for a gift than a piece of Hand-painted CHINA?

Don't forget place

Sign of Big Clock.

A. A. JORDAN'S

Phone 469

Store closed every Thursday Afternoon in July and August.

A rich father is too often a young man's excuse for being worthless.

Ask for Minard's and take no other

IF PURE MILK, CREAM

And ICE CREAM

interest You, a Call at the

MAPLE CITY CREAMERY

Will convince you that all milk for family use should be

Clarified and Bottled

And that we have the only up-to-date plant

West of Toronto.

Visitors always welcome, but Saturday

Come and see how the work is done at

THE

MAPLE CITY CREAMERY

ATLAS CEMENT

Is The Best

Large Assortment of

Sewer Pipe at Lowest

Prices.

John H. Oldershaw & Son

Thames Street, Near Idlewild Hotel

peels.

Work is the only capital that never misses dividends.

Ask for Minard's and take no other

ARABS TAKE OUTPOST

Desperate Charge of Moors
Against the Artillery.

French and Spanish Defenders Driven Out—Station Recaptured After Fierce Fighting—Bayonet Charge Successful—Transport Arrives With Reinforcements—Moorish Horsemen Plundering.

Tangier, Morocco, Aug. 15.—Several thousand fanatical Moors rushed the outposts at Casablanca Tuesday night, drove out the French and Spanish defenders of one of the stations and held it against the foreign troops for over an hour.

Only the most desperate fighting by the soldiers enabled them to regain possession of the outpost which was finally carried by a bayonet attack.

News of the fight reached here yesterday. Hundreds of the Moors were slain or wounded during the fighting and the troops likewise lost several men, according to the message.

The attack of the Moors was made shortly after midnight. Mounted on their fleet horses, the natives charged directly against the guns, unmindful alike of both the rifle fire and shrapnel.

The outer defences were rushed, the soldiers being compelled to withdraw. The Moors established themselves there.

The Moors were repulsed at other points and driven off. Reinforcements were rushed to the force which had been driven out of their earthworks and several charges were launched against the Moors occupying them.

The French swept over the rifle pits, driving the Moors before them. The natives fought bravely, but were unable to cope with their trained adversaries. Many Moors were cut down beside the guns they refused to surrender alive.

Reinforcements are beginning to arrive in Casablanca in response to calls for more soldiers. The transport Oasis has arrived with men sent from Algiers and Oran.

The Spanish cruiser Rio del Plata has also arrived and landed a force of marines. Three hundred Spanish infantrymen and several troops of cavalry are on their way to Casablanca from Cadix.

Paris, Aug. 15.—Despatches from special correspondents at Tangier received here yesterday confirm the reports of engagements between the Moors and make plain that the situation is more alarming than is generally appreciated.

Two hundred horsemen have forced the gates of Mazagan and are plundering the European section of the city. A few Europeans made their escape.

The situation at Fez is critical. The population threatens to rise against the Government which is in no position to defend itself.

Europeans cannot leave the city, which is hemmed in by tribes. A French cruiser has restored calm at Rabat by threatening to bombard the neighboring holy city of Sall. The tribesmen have left the city to join the besiegers at Casablanca.

The bombardment of Fort Fedala, where the natives have a reserve supply of arms and ammunition, is regarded as an immediate necessity.

Gen. Drupe proposes to occupy successively Ben Rechid, Casa Medouna and Settat, which are the centres of the wild tribesmen.

News from Morocco City is bad. Tribes in that region have offered the Sultanate to Tony Hafid, whom they have invited to lead them to Fez. It is feared Hafid's loyalty will not be able to withstand the temptation.

The apparent reluctance to send reinforcements to Gen. Drupe is regarded here as being a great mistake.

Sir Harry Not Free.

Tangier, Aug. 15.—It has been learned that Caid Sir Harry Maclean, the Englishman in charge of the Sultan of Morocco, who has been a prisoner of the bandit Raisuli, since early in June, has not been set at liberty as previously reported.

The British Legation here yesterday received a communication from Raisuli, threatening the unless his terms are accepted immediately he will re-mobilize his army and attack the army of Europe, if united, could not follow.

It seems that Raisuli, upon hearing of the bombardment and occupation of Casablanca, succeeded in taking Maclean back from the Knaass tribesmen and removed him to a strategic position in the neighborhood of Ben Larous.

Maclean is well, but he has been deprived of his tent and compelled to occupy an ordinary soldier's tent of small size. He is subsisting upon black bread.

Explosion in Store.

Sydney Mines, N. S., Aug. 15.—An explosion in Weddleton's candy kitchen occurred yesterday. Miss Josephine was standing behind the counter, within two feet of a soda fountain, cylinder charged to 150 pounds pressure, which suddenly exploded, sending glassware, candy bottles and other paraphernalia flying in all directions, and destroying a wooden partition. Miss Oram's escape was miraculous. Outside a bad fire had escaped without injury.

Betrayed by Finger Print.

Elizabeth, N. J., Aug. 15.—Traced by finger prints, a black hand signed to a letter received by Father Peremi of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, in which the priest is threatened with death unless he turns over $800 by Sept. 1, Michael Vennio, an Italian barber, was arrested as the writer of the letter.

Mosquitoes Stop Mails.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 15.—Mosquitoes are playing havoc with the delivery of the mails along the shores of the Delaware Bay in Central Delaware.

It is learned that a dozen rural carriers who start from Dover have been made ill by attacks from the pests.

THE SOUL OF WIT.

Some Famous Retorts That Have Been Characterized by Brevity.

Brevity has been the marked characteristic of many happy retorts. What could be more crushing, more grimly witty, than the reply attributed to Talleyrand on an occasion when a certain notorious personage, ill and in great pain, said that he was suffering the torments of the lost. Swiftly came the wicked retort "Deja!" already?

Of a different complexion, but equally exemplifying the soul of wit, was the reply, which has been attributed to various painters, to a questioner who wished to know the vehicle with which the painter mixed his colors. Dr. John Brown tells the story of Opie.

"Pray, Mr. Opie, may I ask what you mix your colors with?" said a brisk dilettante student to the great painter. "With brains, sir," was the gruff reply—and the right one. Single word replies, more or less witty, says The London Globe, are fairly common. A patient whom the famous Dr. Abernethy had advised to take a walk on an empty stomach calmly replied, "Whose?"

A recent example was the answer of the late Dean Hole to a boring questioner following him on the Great Northern Railway. "What comes after 'leahin'?" asked the bore. "Scratchin'," came the swift retort, and thereafter the conversation flagged.

Many brief and telling replies are laid to the account of Douglas Jerrold. "What comes after 'leahin'?" asked the bore. "Scratchin'," came the swift retort, and thereafter the conversation flagged.

Akin to this was the answer of John Wesley to the blustering swaggerer who pushed against him on the path, with the insulting remark, "I never make way for a fool." "I always do," said Wesley, quietly stepping aside, and then placidly pursuing his way.

Brief and witty was the reply of a Catholic cleric to an opponent in argument who had declared his disbelief in purgatory. "You might go farther and fare worse," was the ecclesiastic's parting shot.

The wit of more than one of Dr. Johnson's crushing retorts was enhanced by brevity, but examples are too familiar to be quoted. Johnson came down like a sledgehammer on Scotland and things Scottish. Less familiar, perhaps, is the retort in which a Scotsman scored. An Englishman in Scotland was abusing the country, complaining of the state of the land and wondering where he could get less to eat.

"I could tell a place where ye wad get less," said a Scot, who was listening to the tirade. "Where's that?" asked the other.

"Oh, just where an Englishman's been!" said the Scotsman dryly.

Brevity as the soul of wit is exemplified in many popular sayings. Wit is by no means an inevitable ingredient in proverbs. Many of them are of doubtful sense, and some are foolish, yet there is a certain spice. The definition of proverbs by Howell as "sayings which combine sense, shortness and salt," is in the main true. Though truth may be altogether absent and wit barely perceptible, yet there must be a certain "salt," which gives life and savor to "salt," which is telling that some of the shortest—such, for instance, as "Forewarned, forearmed," "Extremes meet," or the ancient "Inter malleum et incudem" (Between the hammer and the anvil). Many sayings which in English are short were briefer still in their original classical form.

That the soul of wit was exemplified most strikingly among the Greeks is only what we should expect. It is curious to remember that our word "laconic" preserves the memory of the reputation for conciseness of speech borne by the people of one part of Greece—the Laconians or Spartans. When Philip of Macedon threatened them, "If I enter Laconia, I will level your city to the dust," they made the famous reply, "If."

Victim of Chikman.

St. Thomas, Aug. 15.—E. H. Chase of this city, received news Tuesday night of the death of his son-in-law, Cyrus Winters, at Regina, from arsenical poison. Winters boarded at a restaurant, the proprietor of which loaned some oatmeal to a Chinaman, keeper of a rival eating house, the Chinaman, which was used, with the result that a number of boarders were taken violently ill.

An analysis of the oatmeal revealed arsenic.

Never step over one duty to perform another.

Work is the only capital that never misses dividends.

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Red Rose Tea

STRENGTH

The flavory strength in the cup, obtained by blending Indian and Ceylon teas, is the secret of Red Rose Tea's success.

The proof is in the drinking—taste it for yourself.

Ask your grocer to send you a package to-day.

THE SOUL OF WIT.

Some Famous Retorts That Have Been Characterized by Brevity.

Brevity has been the marked characteristic of many happy retorts. What could be more crushing, more grimly witty, than the reply attributed to Talleyrand on an occasion when a certain notorious personage, ill and in great pain, said that he was suffering the torments of the lost. Swiftly came the wicked retort "Deja!" already?

Of a different complexion, but equally exemplifying the soul of wit, was the reply, which has been attributed to various painters, to a questioner who wished to know the vehicle with which the painter mixed his colors. Dr. John Brown tells the story of Opie.

"Pray, Mr. Opie, may I ask what you mix your colors with?" said a brisk dilettante student to the great painter. "With brains, sir," was the gruff reply—and the right one. Single word replies, more or less witty, says The London Globe, are fairly common. A patient whom the famous Dr. Abernethy had advised to take a walk on an empty stomach calmly replied, "Whose?"

A recent example was the answer of the late Dean Hole to a boring questioner following him on the Great Northern Railway. "What comes after 'leahin'?" asked the bore. "Scratchin'," came the swift retort, and thereafter the conversation flagged.

Many brief and telling replies are laid to the account of Douglas Jerrold. "What comes after 'leahin'?" asked the bore. "Scratchin'," came the swift retort, and thereafter the conversation flagged.

Akin to this was the answer of John Wesley to the blustering swaggerer who pushed against him on the path, with the insulting remark, "I never make way for a fool." "I always do," said Wesley, quietly stepping aside, and then placidly pursuing his way.

Brief and witty was the reply of a Catholic cleric to an opponent in argument who had declared his disbelief in purgatory. "You might go farther and fare worse," was the ecclesiastic's parting shot.

The wit of more than one of Dr. Johnson's crushing retorts was enhanced by brevity, but examples are too familiar to be quoted. Johnson came down like a sledgehammer on Scotland and things Scottish. Less familiar, perhaps, is the retort in which a Scotsman scored. An Englishman in Scotland was abusing the country, complaining of the state of the land and wondering where he could get less to eat.

"I could tell a place where ye wad get less," said a Scot, who was listening to the tirade. "Where's that?" asked the other.

"Oh, just where an Englishman's been!" said the Scotsman dryly.

Brevity as the soul of wit is exemplified in many popular sayings. Wit is by no means an inevitable ingredient in proverbs. Many of them are of doubtful sense, and some are foolish, yet there is a certain spice. The definition of proverbs by Howell as "sayings which combine sense, shortness and salt," is in the main true. Though truth may be altogether absent and wit barely perceptible, yet there must be a certain "salt," which gives life and savor to "salt," which is telling that some of the shortest—such, for instance, as "Forewarned, forearmed," "Extremes meet," or the ancient "Inter malleum et incudem" (Between the hammer and the anvil). Many sayings which in English are short were briefer still in their original classical form.

That the soul of wit was exemplified most strikingly among the Greeks is only what we should expect. It is curious to remember that our word "laconic" preserves the memory of the reputation for conciseness of speech borne by the people of one part of Greece—the Laconians or Spartans. When Philip of Macedon threatened them, "If I enter Laconia, I will level your city to the dust," they made the famous reply, "If."

Victim of Chikman.

St. Thomas, Aug. 15.—E. H. Chase of this city, received news Tuesday night of the death of his son-in-law, Cyrus Winters, at Regina, from arsenical poison. Winters boarded at a restaurant, the proprietor of which loaned some oatmeal to a Chinaman, keeper of a rival eating house, the Chinaman, which was used, with the result that a number of boarders were taken violently ill.

An analysis of the oatmeal revealed arsenic.

Never step over one duty to perform another.

Work is the only capital that never misses dividends.

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

Ask for Minard's and take no other

SPORT

BASEBALL WEDNESDAY

Eastern League.

Jersey City 0 1 0 0 1 2 0 0 0 4
Toronto 0 0 1 0 1 1 1 3 2 7
Home run—Flynn. Three base hit—Schaffy. Two base hit—McGinley. Sacrifice—Phyllis. Frick. Double play—Hanford to Butler. Struck out—By McGinley 6, by Poxen 1 (McGinley). Bases on balls—Off McGinley 3, off Poxen 4. Hit by pitcher—Poxen, Frick 2. Wild pitch—Foxen. Passed ball—Butler. Left on bases—Jersey City 4, Toronto 4. Time—2:10. Umpires—Conway and McCarthy.

Jersey City 1 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 4
Toronto 1 0 0 1 2 0 0 3 0 4
Three-base hit—Hanford. Moffitt. Two-base hit—Hanford, Keister. Hurley. Sacrifice hit—Bean, Moffitt. Stolen bases—Clement, Schaffy 2, Flynn. Innings pitched—By Rudolph 5, off Moffitt 1, off Moffitt 5, off Rudolph 2, off Rudolph 2, off Whiting 1. Struck out—By Rudolph 2, by Whiting 1. Passed ball—Pittsford 2. Double play—Moffitt to Erick to Flynn. Left on bases—Jersey City 7, Toronto 2. Time—2:35. Umpires—McCarthy and Conway.

Rochester 1 1 1 1 1 0 1 0 0 7
Rochester 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 2
Rochester 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 2
Baltimore 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 2 6
Buffalo 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1
Providence 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 1 5
Montreal 2 0 0 0 2 0 1 1 4

National League Scores.

At Boston—120001100-2 3 1
Boston 200010000-3 12 5
Batteries—McGinn and Marshall; Doherty, Lindaman and Brown. Umpires—Needham and Noonan.

At New York—200420001-2 15 3
Cincinnati 000101011-4 8 1
Batteries—Coakley and McLean; McGinnity, Ferguson and Bresnahan. Umpires—Richter.

At Philadelphia—000100100-0 9 2
Chicago 000100000-0 9 2
Batteries—Taylor, Pfeister and Kling; Sparks and Doolin. Umpires—Klein and O'Day.

At Brooklyn—000410100-5 10 1
Pittsburg 000410100-5 10 1
Brooklyn 000000000-0 0 0
Batteries—Leever and Phelps; McIntyre and Bergen. Umpires—Carpenter and Emslie.

American League Scores.

Detroit 32101020-7 10 0
Philadelphia 010000001-2 8 0
Batteries—Donovan and Payne; Wadell, Dryer, Bartley, Coombs and Schreck. Umpire—Sheridan.

At St. Louis—010000000-0 9 2
Washington 000000000-0 9 2
Batteries—Pelly and Spencer; Johnson and Hayman.

At Chicago—000100000-0 6 4
Chicago 000100000-0 6 4
Boston 000010000-1 6 3
Batteries—Altrock, White and Hart; Glaze, Pruitt and Criger.

At Cleveland—000010000-1 6 3
Cleveland 000010000-1 6 3
New York 100100000-2 6 0
Batteries—Thiel and Clark; Chesbro and Kleinow. Umpire—Connelly.

Buildings In Danger.

London, Aug. 15.—Acting Mayor Gillen yesterday decided to send to Toronto for the Provincial building inspector, as several large buildings in the city are said to be in a dangerous condition and a reputation of the Reid disaster is feared.

Baby Had Diarrhoea

FOR SEVEN WEEKS

Thousands of infants die annually who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

There can be no doubt about it. Sixty-two years experience has proved this sterling remedy to be the best for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Cholera Infantum, Cholera Morbus Summer Complaint, and all bowel troubles in both children and adults.

Many of the imitations sold are positively dangerous, as they often check the diarrhoea too suddenly and cause inflammation.

Always insist on the genuine Dr. Fowler's. Sold at all medicine dealers at 35 cents a bottle.

Mrs. A. B. De Marchand, Bath, N.B., writes: "My baby was troubled with Diarrhoea for nearly seven weeks. I tried three different doctors, but none of them could do her any good. I was advised to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and less than half a bottle cured her."

Manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

See that their name is on