ADMIRAL SIMS ON PROHIBITION

Admiral Sims, when asked if it was true that he was a supporter of America's dry policy, replied: "In favour of the dry policy, you ask? Oh, absolutely and whole-heartedly." "And what is your opinion as to how it is working?" the reporter asked. "It is working all right. Of course, there is a good deal of smuggling, but I don't suppose there is one-half of one per cent. of the alcohol consumed now that was consumed before the dry law came into force. But our great claim as Prohibitionists is that it has shut up the schools of future drunkards, the saloons and clubs. We have saved the rising generation from the

In thirty years, lectures have been given before 3,000,000 children, and to-day the membership of the Union is 200,000.

FLOUR PRICE LOWEST IN YEARS

MINNEAPOLIS, November 5—For the first time in more than five years, flour went under the seven dollars a barrel price here yesterday, the decline following a break in the wheat market Thursday. One large mill reduced its price 15 cents on family patents, making their quotations $6.90 a barrel when sold in car lots in 98 pound cotton sacks.
