OBITUARY.

The funeral of Patrick Crane took The funeral of Patrick Crane took place this morning at 8.30 o'clock, from his late residence, Burlington Heights, to St. Mary's Cathedral, where requiem mass was chanted by Rev. Father Bondomi. Rev. Dean Mahoney officiated at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

The last sad rites were held over the emains of the late Jeremiah Waller in amilton Cemetery, on Saturday, the uneral taking place from the residence of Mrs. George Stokes, 113 Ferguson avenue north at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. B. Rowe conducted the services at the house and grave. The pailbearers were Harry, Charles, Joseph and Edward Sver.

The Faster promotion examinations.

The world may be full of change, but we haven't seen much of it.

We don't believe in capital punishment except as a penalty for suicide. Four C. P. R. passenger conductors running out of North Bay have been relieved from duty and will report at headquarters in Montreal, as the result, it is alleged, of the work of spotters who have been engaged on the Lake Superior division.

Brant

On April 7th, at the home of the bride's parents, Brant, by the Rev. Mr. Webb, Nancy B., second daughter of Wm. and Mrs. Rispen, was married to Richard N. Dawdy, Trinity. The wedding was a very quiet one. Only the bride's brothers and sisters and two families of their nearest neighbors were present. The bride looked very pretty in a travelling suit of two-tone brown chiffon broadcloth. They went east to spend Easter with the bride's sister, Mrs. M. Johnson, Peterborough.

Many from this neighborhood again took in the Stanley Mills excursion to Hamilton.

Stoney Creek

The closing banquet of Pine Crest Literary Society took place on April 6. There was not a large crowd, owing to the bad condition of the roads, but those who were present had a splendid time. Several interesting toasts were given.

The new Stoney Creek Literary Society have their closing banquet on Monday, April 12th, in the Institute Hall.

The recent wind storm did a lot of damage to the buildings and fences in this vicinity.

Those who unfortunately have had scarlet fever in this locality are nearly well now and no new cases have developed.

The promotion examinations are over for another year and a number have left the village for the holidays. Miss Nokes has gone to her home in Uxbridge.

The Stoney Creek Literary Society visited Hamilton Collegiate on April 8th. The challenge debate was the principal feature for the evening. Miss Walker and J. Corman represented Stoney Creek and Miss Strong and Mr. Mitchell represented the Collegiate. Both sides did splendidly but Stoney Creek won by a few points.
