

JUST RECEIVED
A. B. G. & Co.
Auctioneer
No. 10, St. John's Street,
New York.

THE PROTESTANT
AND EVANGELICAL WITNESS
Is issued every Saturday from Hazzard's Printing Office, South Side, Queen's Square, by DAVID LAIRD, Editor and Proprietor.

THE DEPARTED FAITHFUL
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

THE ORPHAN JUGGERNAUT
In the year 1829, a British family in North India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

THE COMMUNION QUESTION
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in matters not positively revealed.

THE SOVEREIGN REMEDY
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

WELCOME TO JESUS
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

THE MANIFESTATION OF LOVE
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

THE PROTESTANT
AND EVANGELICAL WITNESS
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

PROVE ALL THINGS: HOLD FAST THAT WHICH IS GOOD.—1 Thim. v. 21.

The Protestant and Evangelical Witness
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

The Departed Faithful
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

The Orphan Juggernaut
In the year 1829, a British family in North
India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

The Communion Question
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in
matters not positively revealed.

The Sovereign Remedy
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

Welcome to Jesus
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to
entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and
then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and
forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

The Manifestation of Love
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts
and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he
might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

Dr. Guthrie's Appeal
I was visiting to-day, and I held in my hand a letter written by a dying man. His name, three years ago, was one of the happiest, sweetest, and most comfortable homes of any working man in Edinburgh.
He is now dying of consumption. His life is a warning to all who are in the same way. He is now in the hands of the Father, and he has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy.

The Protestant and Evangelical Witness
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

The Departed Faithful
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

The Orphan Juggernaut
In the year 1829, a British family in North
India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

The Communion Question
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in
matters not positively revealed.

The Sovereign Remedy
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

Welcome to Jesus
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to
entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and
then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and
forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

The Manifestation of Love
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts
and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he
might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

Dr. Guthrie's Appeal
I was visiting to-day, and I held in my hand a letter written by a dying man. His name, three years ago, was one of the happiest, sweetest, and most
comfortable homes of any working man in Edinburgh.
He is now dying of consumption. His life is a warning to all who are in the same way. He is now in the hands of the Father, and he has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him
a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy.

The Protestant and Evangelical Witness
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

The Departed Faithful
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

The Orphan Juggernaut
In the year 1829, a British family in North
India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

The Communion Question
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in
matters not positively revealed.

The Sovereign Remedy
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

Welcome to Jesus
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to
entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and
then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and
forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

The Manifestation of Love
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts
and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he
might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

Dr. Guthrie's Appeal
I was visiting to-day, and I held in my hand a letter written by a dying man. His name, three years ago, was one of the happiest, sweetest, and most
comfortable homes of any working man in Edinburgh.
He is now dying of consumption. His life is a warning to all who are in the same way. He is now in the hands of the Father, and he has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him
a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy.

The Protestant and Evangelical Witness
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

The Departed Faithful
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

The Orphan Juggernaut
In the year 1829, a British family in North
India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

The Communion Question
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in
matters not positively revealed.

The Sovereign Remedy
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

Welcome to Jesus
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to
entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and
then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and
forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

The Manifestation of Love
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts
and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he
might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

Dr. Guthrie's Appeal
I was visiting to-day, and I held in my hand a letter written by a dying man. His name, three years ago, was one of the happiest, sweetest, and most
comfortable homes of any working man in Edinburgh.
He is now dying of consumption. His life is a warning to all who are in the same way. He is now in the hands of the Father, and he has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him
a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy.

The Protestant and Evangelical Witness
No. 2
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, February 2, 1861.
No. 31

The Departed Faithful
And also those Thy holy name—for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear.—Continued.

The Orphan Juggernaut
In the year 1829, a British family in North
India set out on a pilgrimage to the temple of Juggernaut.

The Communion Question
I find that experience is a most excellent teacher in
matters not positively revealed.

The Sovereign Remedy
Nervy, garden, and grace, could find no other way
to leave forth from the heart of the Father, but by the heart blood of the Son, and so they stream to the heart of the sinner.

Welcome to Jesus
Jesus Christ, in the days of his flesh, was willing to
entertain, with the most tender affection, little children
that were brought unto him; and when his disciples
would have kept them away, He rebuked them, and
then said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and
forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven.
And He took them up in His arms." (Mark, x. 14, 15.)

The Manifestation of Love
It was once noted through Europe as a wonderful
fact that the monarch of a mighty empire had laid
himself out to see that the monarch of a simple traveller
was journeying from land to land, investigating the arts
and industry of each; that through this lowly quest he
might enlighten and elevate his beloved people. Well
might the world wonder at such a kindly condescension.

Dr. Guthrie's Appeal
I was visiting to-day, and I held in my hand a letter written by a dying man. His name, three years ago, was one of the happiest, sweetest, and most
comfortable homes of any working man in Edinburgh.
He is now dying of consumption. His life is a warning to all who are in the same way. He is now in the hands of the Father, and he has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him
a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy. He has left behind him a precious legacy.