To EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE. Dear Sir: In reply to the article which was written by "Peter Joe" in your last issue, would say: -The people throughout the land of Cambridge were quite surprised to find that the Cambridge correspondent had once more arisen from the deep slumbers under "the shadow of the pines," and had once again placed himself among the colored of Otnabog in order to find a name to suit his taste. He seems to have forgotten the title he bore in by-gone days and now wishes to mingle with those as sandy as he. We hope he last week, of a very nice bunch, of May will pay better attention to his business and not be feeding along the road. "GUNIS."
