THE MOTHER'S PRAYER. A mother's holy arms caressed A babe that laughed upon her breast.

Then thus to Heaven she cried in prayer: "Now even as his face is fair, "O Lord! keep Thou the soul within As free from any spot of sin."

From Heaven the Lord an answer made, "Behold! I grant as thou has't prayed." Within the door the darkness crept, And babe and mother sweetly slept. The belfry rang the midnight bell;

The watchman answered, "All is well." Awaking at the cradle side, The mother knew her habe had died With grief to set a woman wild,

She caught and clasped the marble child -Until her heart against his own Was broken, beating on a stone! "Oh God!" she cried, in her despair, prayer? Then answered He, "As I have willed. Thy prayer, O woman! is fulfilled. "If on earth his soul remain,

His soul shall gather many a stain; "At thy behest I reach my hand To lift him to the heavenly land!" The mother heard and bowed her head. And laid her cheek against the dead -And cried, "O God! - I dare not pray -Thou answerest in so strange a way!'

In shadow of a taper's light, But when the morning brought the sun, She prayed, "Thy will, O God, be done!"

A Double-Feed Fountain Pen that Never Fails.

Caw's " Dashaway" Pen.

In this age of strife and lurry, when each individual is trying to outstrip his neighbor in the race for wealth, it is important that all who wish to win should be possessed of the most modern appliances to accomplish their purpose. These remarks apply particularly to those engaged in the profession, and in mercantile pursuits whose attention has been attracted to the merits of Caw's DASHAWAY FOUNTAIN PEN.

Any good writing or copying ink may be used, and one fill g will write from forty to fifty pages of foolscap. It can be carried in the pocket ready for use in any emergency, and even if not used for months, as soon as touched to paper the ink begins to flow by capillary attraction and the action of the pen in writing.

Records, accounts, and letters written with this pen have a uniform color of ink on every page and line, because the ink is fresh and is laid on more evenly than with a dip pen.

It is the simplest, cleanest, readiest and most easily managed of all the fountain pens.

When the cap is removed it is ready to write, and when the writing is done the cap can be replaced and the pen is ready for the pocket.

The hard rubber is incorrodible, and with a gold pen there is nothing that can be affected by the ink, and unless unnecessarily injured it will LAST A LIFETIME.

A Letter from Benjamin Harrison, President of the United Stales. Yours of the 15th inst. received, also the second "Dashaway" Fountain Pen, which just suits me. The first one I gave to Mrs. Harrison for her use. Thanking you for your attention, I am,

Very truly yours,
BENJ. HARRISON. Opinions of the Press. Evening Post .- " Caw's ' Dashaway ' surpasses all the money that will allord so much profit and satisfaction."

The Tribune.—"The 'Dashaway' can be depended on at all times. It is especially valuable to mercantile men, stenographers and newspaper men, who are of necessity always more or less in a hurry."

The Times.—"The Dashaway' is not a stylograph, but a regular 14-carat gold pen attached to a fountain holder. It can be unused, carried in the pocket for months, and when needed is always ready."

The Mail and Express.—"It can be fitted to any hand, and does for the writer just what the continually the eaded needle does for the sewing machine, and what the untiring locomotive does for the traveller." the traveller."

The World.—"It is an amazingly simple contrivance, and so far as our experience goes, never gets out of order."
