LODGE'S OPINION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. Describing the League of Nations as a "deformed experiment upon a noble purpose," Senator Lodge declared in a Senate speech to-day that there were features of the League covenant which "as an American," he never could accept.

MAKING A RECORD.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. The traditional decorum of the Senate procedure was upset to-day by an unusual demonstration of approval from the galleries following an address by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, assailing the provisions of the League of Nations Covenant.

WILL NOT SURRENDER.

BERLIN, Aug. 12. While assuming responsibility for the decision and commands of former Emperor William from September 1914 to August 1918, Gen. Von Falkenhayn, former German chief of staff, declares he had no intention whatever of voluntarily placing himself at the disposal of the Allies. The General's statement says that if he surrendered himself to the Allies he would recognize a procedure which he considers "mocks all sense of justice."

A WISE DECISION.

LONDON, Aug. 12. The Yorkshire miners' council recommended to-day that work be resumed by the more than 200,000 men who have been striking in that district for several weeks, refusing to accept the settlement reached by the government and miners' representatives.

AND WHY WORRY!

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13. Hall Pasha, former Minister of Marine and uncle of Enver Pasha, former Minister of War, has escaped to Asia Minor with Kritikal Talast, another leader of the Committee of Union and Progress.

MAKING PROGRESS.

LONDON, Aug. 12. General Denekine's advance is continuing along the greater part of the southern Russian front against considerable resistance, the War Office announced to-night. Kamashin, which was taken on July 28th, yield eleven thousand prisoners, sixty guns and one hundred and fifty machine guns, and an immense amount of war material.

AN HONOR TO CANADA AND THE PRINCE.

OTTAWA, Aug. 12. The Consul General for Italy in Montreal has telegraphed Sir Robert Borden informing the Premier that the Italian Government has directed the Royal battleship Conte Di Cavour to report to Halifax on the fifteenth inst., to greet His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA.

PARIS, Aug. 12. The Supreme Council of the Peace Conference, it was announced to-day, has advised the Austrian Delegation that the Allied and Associated Powers have decided that the new Austrian Government must be called the "Republic of Austria." The decision was taken as a result of notes from the Austrian delegation in which they referred to their Government as "German-Austria."

LLOYD GEORGE, O.M.

LONDON, Aug. 12. King George to-night invested David Lloyd George, the Premier, with the Order of Merit at Buckingham Palace.

BULGARIAN ELECTIONS.

PARIS, Aug. 12. Parliamentary elections will be held in Bulgaria, Aug. 17. It appears probable that the Agrarian Party, of which M. Stambulsky, a member of the Bulgarian peace delegation is the leader, will win a majority of seats.

ALLEGED EXTRAVAGANCE.

LONDON, Aug. 12. Alleged extravagance on the part of the Air Ministry was the subject of a debate in the House of Commons to-day. The debate began after Major Gen. J. E. B. Seely, head of the ministry, had detailed economies effected since the armistice. Twenty thousand officers and more than 200,000 men, General Seely said, had been demobilized while 210 airdromes have been dismantled and 125 rented buildings had been returned to their owners. Only 10,000 officers and 60,000 men remain in the service. The estimated appropriation for the air force of 95,000,000 pounds, the General added, was necessary to clear up war contracts. The ministers had to listen to a deal of strong criticism of the extravagance of the government in the matter of armaments, but Winston Churchill, Secretary for War, in a general defense of the Government, said he was able to promise considerable retrenchment in this direction. His speech betrayed that the Government was endeavoring as far as possible to meet the popular demands for greater economy. Major General Seely in the course of his speech made the effective point that the efficient Air Force had saved the country millions in money and thousands in lives this year in connection with the trouble in Afghanistan and Egypt where campaigns were carried out at slight cost as compared to the aforesaid heavy cost in money and life in similar campaigns conducted by Lord Roberts and Wolsey.

"Idol of the Regiment" Re-Enters Old School.

Lieut. Col. A. E. Bernard, with the Regiment since its formation, has decided to again join the teaching staff of Bishop Field College, and with the reopening of that institution will take up his duties. Major Arthur Raley, who joined up with the First Five Hundred with Colonel Bernard, also rejoins the Field College staff, and the addition of these popular and efficient officers to Bishop Field College must necessarily benefit. Both were masters there prior to enlisting, resigning their posts by permission at the outbreak of the war. They carry back with them all the experiences gained during five years of military life and those who have the good fortune of being their pupils will be delighted, especially those who were there while the old masters taught before.

"Dragon" Sailors Sing.

A number of people had the pleasure, on Last Tuesday night, of listening to the fine singing of several sailors from H. M. S. Dragon, who had gotten shore leave and were then promenading Water Street and enjoying themselves generally. The singing, which was by note, is said to have been the best heard here for some time, the individual singers having sung before large houses at various ports visited by them.

More Reckless Driving.

If the owner of automobile number four hundred and four is again seen by the Telegram in the act of speeding as he was on Tuesday evening, coming down Hutchings Street onto Water Street, his name will be published and the proper proceedings taken. This car swept down the street in question and, without sounding its horn, broke around the corner and went up Water Street towards the West. With the number of accidents and deaths from automobiles as have happened lately, popular opinion is strongly against this menace, and unless speeding soon ceases there is going to be trouble.

Girl Meets Accident.

A domestic with Mr. C. Buckley, grocer, Water Street West, while witnessing the display of fireworks near the Colonial Building, was injured by the dropping of a rocket, which ignited her hat and penetrating through inflicted a nasty scalp wound. She was taken to H. Peddregrew's to have her injuries attended to.

Baseballer Breaks Leg.

As a result of slipping when attempting to slide to second base, in Tuesday evening's baseball game, Brazie, the popular ballman, was most unfortunate in breaking his ankle. He no sooner fell than a large crowd of fans ran in onto the field and threatened to tread the injured man underfoot. Dr. John Grieve, who was amongst the spectators, quickly diagnosed the injury, and Brazie was placed on a door, taken in J. B. Orr's automobile and driven to the residence of J. M. Brown, Riverhead. Drs. Campbell and MacDonlad attended him there, whence he was conveyed to the General Hospital by ambulance. An extraordinary thing was brought to light by this accident, and that was the absence of necessary first aid equipment in the pavillion. Such equipment is supposed to be there, but, owing to somebody's negligence, was now missing. Brazie is a good player, well liked by all, and general sympathy for him in his ill-luck is felt.

Woman Missing.

A woman that was missing with her husband for the street car at the junction of Wolloway and Duckworth Streets yesterday, strayed from him. He having soon missed his wife, set out in search of her but to no avail. Late at night the wanderer was reported safe with some friends whom she had visited. The woman is of unsound mind and the husband had a certificate issued by Dr. Macpherson some two weeks ago for her admittance to the Asylum.

The Nocturnal Illuminations.

St. John's experienced its brightest and most brilliant nocturnal illuminations on Tuesday night last. Everywhere the light was dazzling and far into the night the crowds of citizens who paraded the streets were awed into silence by the splendour of the scenes that met their eyes. The arches were lighted up, while public and private buildings were illuminated and added their brilliancy to the night. The Court House windows were filled with lighted candles, the waterfront was ablaze and the shipping in the stream was magnificent in contributing to the general celebrations. On the Southside Hills bonfires flared skywards, while on the streets skyrockets and fireworks kept everybody looking up. Without doubt the most brilliant and magnificent of the several arches was that of Sir John Crosbie, Mr. H. D. Reid's taking a close second place. There were more people on the streets on Tuesday night than ever seen before, and old people and young people, cripples and lame people, big and small, and all classes were represented.

Prince of Wales Presents Medals to Florizel Heroes.

On Tuesday afternoon at three thirty o'clock the heroes who had performed such meritorious services in life-saving at the time of the Florizel Disaster received from the Prince of Wales the medals that have been awarded them in recognition of their great bravery on that ever to be remembered occasion.

The presentation took place on the steps of the House of Assembly, guards of honor from the regiment and police being present. Dignitaries from the House of Assembly were present, while the Prince's staff attended him. Hon. J. G. Stone read from the official compilations the individual acts of gallantry for which the medals had been designated. A military officer then called the names of the heroes, each stepping forward to have the medals pinned on their breast by the Prince. His Royal Highness spoke briefly to each recipient, complimenting him on the gallantry of his conduct and then shook hands. Cheers were given by the assembled spectators, after which the Prince conversed for a short while with half a dozen or so men for whom the medals had not yet arrived from England. Cheers were then given the royal visitor after which the party drove to Government House where a Garden Party was to be enjoyed.

Tight Collars and Bad Tempers.
Women, who wear tight collars do not drain their brains properly, and often suffer from bad tempers, according to the dictum of Dr. Leonard Williams, in a lecture on "common-sense," delivered at the Peace Nursing Exhibition, in London. He says that since women have given up high collars and are wearing garments which give freedom to the neck they have become sweeter tempered. Dr. Williams believes also in well-fitting corsets. He says aboriginal man was a four-footed animal. The abdominal construction was intended for that posture. Since human beings have taken to walking on their hind legs the position of these organs have been thrown out of gear. Healthy out-door, living athletes might get on very well, says our authority, but people who live in a sedentary life require some kind of support such as corsets give.

Couldn't Be Done.
He was a nervous man. Most men are when they find themselves in the dentist's chair, but he was exceptionally so. The tooth that had to come out was quite a small affair—from the dentist's point of view. From the patient's it felt about the same size as a cottage loaf. He decided to have gas. The dentist tried to persuade him to do without it, but he was determined. The doctor was, therefore, telephoned for. The dentist in a fever of impatience waited for the victim to lose consciousness, but the nervous man insisted upon keeping one eye open, although he had had enough gas to float an airship. Unable to contain himself any longer, the irate toothpuller exclaimed, "Let yourself go, man! Shut your eyes, you idiot!" Somewhere in the back blocks of dreamland the patient murmured, sleepily, "Can't—it's glass!"

Do You Seek Better Tyres?

The thing you want most in a tyre is the thing The Good Year Tyre & Rubber Companies try hardest to put there. That is great mileage at small cost. The Good Year Tyre & Rubber Companies do put it there, and make sure of it by guarding every step of manufacture with jealous care. To start properly, The Good Year Tyre & Rubber Companies own and operate their own rubber plantation in the East Indies, their own cotton plantation, and their own cotton mills. To continue properly, The Good Year Tyre & Rubber Companies insist that other materials they use shall conform to the same high Good Year standard. And they pursue in the same critical spirit every one of the processes of tyre-building—they watch and weigh, test and try, up to the moment of wheeling the completed product into the stockroom. By fitting Good Year s to your car, you will, we feel certain, enjoy better tyre service than ever before.
