Hertzog Urges South African Independence --- Judiciary Committee of Senate Approves Franco - American Treaty --- Gompers Talks on Industrial Conditions.

FIUME, Sept. 22. Capt. D'Annunzio, the commander of the Italian regular troops, said to-day tinued. "I consider the blockade contrary to the rights of man, none hav ing the right to punish the thousands of inhabitants of Fiume simply because they wish to remain Italians for ever. There will be no conflict with the Italian troops as I do not believe that there is a single soldier who would fight against my men," he
