WICK AT THE NICKEL. Last night's attraction at the Nick-was a Goldwyn picture. entitled Made in Heaven" featuring Tom oore. He plays the part of an ishman to perfection and is surunded by a charming collection of tractive young women. Fom himf is a large asset, with his smile his knowing wink, and when he hils from Ireland he is thoughtful lough to bring along his rare and olly old father, in the person of arles Eldridge, and his decidedly etty sister, acted by the adorable ne Aderee. There are several ealistic fire scenes in the picture, nd the steamship incidents were ade right in New York Harbor with Statue of Liberty overseeing the But it is the original and masrful manner of Tom's wooing and inning of the rescue malden that ves the pleasant flavor to the affair, elen Chadwick as Claudia Royce and olly Malone as her sister complete trio of charmers supporting Mr. ore. The other members of the st are all that could be desired. ne balance of the programme was ually as good and will be repeated
