ATHLETES AT HALIFAX

This morning the following message was received by the A.A.A. from the Halifax, who is in charge of the team: "Team very slick on way up. Team lost 4 pounds, Burnell 2, and O'Connell 1. They just tried their shoes yesterday's Track today. By no means fit for hard work yet. There are 11 entries in five mile race, with McEllan and McEwen as favorites. Six entries in 1 mile walk, with Sawyer's favorite. Receiving good help from Wandsworth Club."

TO-DAY'S CABLES

New York, Sept. 10.—John Watson, who for the New York Giants has made five hundred dollars and headed for the rest of the season Manager McGraw, because he arrived at headquarters in an unfit condition for the trip to Boston where he is to be tried to-day, to begin a series in the Braves.

London, Sept. 10.—Papyrus, the last year winner, will embark on the Atlantic on Sept. 22nd, with a return to the States. Bar Gold, his mate and sole stable companion, is to go to the States with him. Papyrus will go to the United States in accordance with a special permit from the United States authorities. (Ed.—Papyrus goes to America to be the pick of the American horses in the International Championship.)

ST. JOHN'S GAME A DRAW

Despite the lovely weather, only a scattering of fans turned out to the Guards and Felldians open the receipts amounting to only $1. Three of the Guards' regulars failed to appear, so that they were obliged to carry three substitutes, of whom Harry Maddock was the star. There is a new rule somewhere in existence, which states that all players must be fully uniformed. If there is any doubt, to be in any case there was a blessing in disguise, as the light for the similarity of the uniforms of both teams made it only trying for the players themselves but to the referee as well. The result was that all through the game, play was in bunches, with men running other members of their team.

When the toss and playing with strong westerly breeze in their favor, the Guards at once vigorously attacked the Felldians, but were repulsed on each attack through strong defence work. Both Rose and Macklin had splendid chances but failed to make the most of them. For nearly the whole period the play was give and take, but just towards the end Rose tried a long drive. Voisey cleared but the wind took the ball back again in the goal area. Ron Chafe cut inside and cleared it cleverly, near the goal line, when to the surprise of everybody Referee Quick, who was standing well up field blew his whistle and declared a goal. How he could judge it from this distance is a mystery. In a scum a minute or so later the Felldians with one voice hailed "Infielders." Voisey (the Felldian goalie) pulled a bone when he headed the ball instead of the refs' whistle and allowed the ball to go in unchallenged. Result No. 2 for the Guards.

On crossing over the real fun began and the fans were in the element. Right from the kick-off the Felldians pressed hard but a string of horseshoes were hanging all over the Guards' goal and Maddock cleared everything that came his way. It was a series of fumbles and errors and it looked as if it were impossible for the Felldians to score, while with 7 minutes to go Dickie Quick fouled at the penalty area, and his brother blew the whistle on him. On a clever kick Ewing drew first blood for the Felldians. Eric Chafe got a cross-shot which Maddock mistook, thus tying the score. There were so many casualties which needed attention that to make up for lost time evidently, the second period was prolonged over 4 minutes. The game was an enjoyable one from a spectator's viewpoint as there was plenty of fun and innumerable thrills. It will now be replayed at the end of the series. To-night the C.L.B. and B.S. will be the contestants and the game should draw a large crowd.

A WORD TO THE REFEREE

A referee has many things to consider and many knotty points to decide between the start and the finish of the game. He would not be human if he did not make mistakes, but he must do everything possible to reduce the chances of error to a minimum.

1. He must follow the game not only with his eyes, but with his legs.
2. He must be in the best position to decide a doubtful point.
3. If a doubt remains on any point, he must leave things as they were.
4. He must not allow extra time when time is wasted by those to whom it is an advantage to get an extension.
5. The rules are clear: It is not his business to interpret them, but to enforce them to the letter.

Note: These points are not laid down in the Soccer rules; they are plain horse sense. Verbum sap!

ST. JOHN'S THE HOME OF GOOD SPORTS

St. John's Newfoundland, the home of real good sports, may send a team of athletes to the Canadian track and field championships. Secretary Dickie has been in communication with the Old Colony sportsmen and he is confident that at least six men will be sent up. Two years ago Newfoundland athletes competed in Halifax with great success and they would be welcomed at the biggest meet held in the history of the city. Word comes from Upper Canada that the best bats of the big provinces will be sent east to take back titles, but Maritime men are optimistic over the chances of our best men.

Bill Mossey and Victor Macaulay, the big men of the Maritimes, are training faithfully and they can be counted on for at least 12 points between them. Owen Sawdon, walking champion who represents Dartmouth is also a favorite while Steve Kennedy and Eric Smith should be able to make a creditable showing. Officials and full particulars of the big meet will be announced to-morrow. —Halifax Herald, September 7th, 1923.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL LEAGUE

At a meeting of the Junior League the matter of playing the remaining games was discussed. At present there remain seven games to be played before the championship can be decided and as the senior league are now conducting the T.C. cup series it will be found difficult to play the Junior games on St. George's Field before it is too late. With a view to overcoming this a suggestion was made of playing the remaining games at the Ayre Athletic Grounds, the first of which will take place to-night between the B.S. and St. Mary's. On to-morrow evening the Holy Cross and Cadets will compete on St. George's Field and a lively game is anticipated as the championship depends to a large extent on the outcome. On Thursday at the Ayre Grounds the Wesley and Scouts will face off and on Friday at the same place the Cadets and T.A. will be the contesting teams. Next week the postponed Cadets and Wesley will take place on St. George's Field. It is hoped that supporters of the League will patronize the games on the Ayre Field.

OFF FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Dave Johnson, of the H.G.A.A., leaves to-day by express for Halifax to take in the championships. It is hoped that supporters of the League will patronize the games on behalf of the Guards.

PRELIMINARIES TO-NIGHT

The Guards, C.C.C. Truckmen and St. Mary's will play their preliminaries in the tug-of-war this evening. The finals will take place to-morrow afternoon at the Guards' Sports.

MONTREAL TEAM IN CANADA CHAMPIONSHIP

The A.A.A. of Montreal called in a team of 12 to go to Halifax to compete in the Olympic trials. Depleted finances, however, made it necessary to reduce the team to eight. At the trials for the Province of Quebec the following were selected:

100 yards J. McKeownley	10%
220 yards E. McKeownley	2%
440 yards D. M. Johnson	51%
1/2 mile B. B. Harris	3.8%
Broad Jump J. O'Neill	30%
Shot Put D. Cable	38%
1 mile W. Antik	4.3%
5 miles L. A. Dufresne	2%

ONE ARMED GOLFER

Cecil Gardner, a one armed youth of 17, entered last week in the Boys' National Golf Championship at Dunbar, N.S. Interviewed by the "Mirror" he said: "I think I can give some of the others a run for their money, though I know some fine players have entered." Cecil's handicap is 16, and he plays a steady game and a fairly straight ball. He considers his putting his strongest point, as the loss of an arm handicaps him little on the greens. He has an astonishing swing and when on the green with his two and a half foot putter, made from a walking-stick, he is as good as many two-handed players. "Bogey" for the Shooter's Hill course is 73, and Cecil's best is 53, ten above bogey. He can drive 200 yards.

FELLDIANS' PROTEST

The Felldians have entered a protest to the League over the referee's decision last night on the first goal scored against them by the Guards. A special meeting is being called by President Higgins to deal with the matter.

OF THE LINKS!

Arthur: "What's your handicap?" Charles: "53—She's coming!"

ANSWERS

"Guard"—O'Toole's time for the 3 miles last Wednesday was 18.50. He therefore broke his previous record of 18.30 made at Mount Cashel this year. He also smashed his own 5 mile record of 22.55, when he made half the 10 mile distance under 27 mins.

IS IT SPORT?

A fair correspondent slams herself "Lover of the Feathered Tribe," asks us to make a plea against the senseless slaughter and destruction which is sure to take place after the 15th when the shooting season opens. She states in part: "Certainly a criminal is the person who goes out with a gun and shoots everything feathered he sees, for the mere sake of senseless destruction. Probably by some mysterious process of muddled thought he extenuates himself to be a sportsman—a term perhaps more absurd than any other in the English tongue."

In Passing.

The most difficult job for any man to successfully master is "doing nothing," and the man who masters the task is indeed a master man.

The return of Sir Richard Squires is responsible for the great deal of interest that is manifested in the present and future political possibilities and many and wild are the rumors afloat in consequence of the ex-Premier's return from Canada and United States and his early departure for England. Premier Warren and his Private Secretary, Mr. Carey, will be leaving St. John's on Saturday next by the S.S. Diaby en route to England to attend the Imperial Conference.

It is thought that Sir Richard Squires will also be taking passage by the same liner for the purpose of attending to personal business which will necessitate his absence from Newfoundland for a couple of months.

The departure of the Prime Minister and his also Minister of Justice and that of Sir Richard Squires whose administration is about to be officially investigated and the absence of Hon. Dr. Campbell late Minister of Agriculture gives rise to rumor that the promised enquiry will be postponed.

The new Government will soon find themselves in a position to make the same price as their predecessors, should any serious attempt be made to quibble with the proposed investigation. The people have to a certain extent learned and profited by past experience and any undue delay or indifference practised by those who pleaded a free frank and a fearless enquiry will meet with every evidence of discontent on the part of any already too often biased and disgraced people.

Perhaps Hon. Mr. Warren will make a public statement regarding the matter before his departure and also make known his department's representative in the event that the proceedings of the commission will commence before he returns from London.

Who will be acting Prime Minister during the absence of Hon. Mr. Warren is a question that is concerning a lot of people who seem interested. Hon. Mr. Warren's choice is said to be Hon. Mr. Poole whilst Sir W. F. Coaker has nominated Hon. Mr. Halford, the chairman of the Executive Council and Colonial Secretary.

Sir M. G. Winter's name is also mentioned as a compromise between the nominees of the two factions of the Government. Sir W. F. Coaker, who by the way has not attended a single meeting of the Cabinet since his West Indian Bill was refused a first reading in the Assembly is determined that Hon. Mr. Halford be unquestionably the same as if the dictator himself were selected.

It is also broadcasted that a rift has occurred in connection with the running of the railway and that one or more new commissioners will substitute one or more of those now on the Board of three.

With such a change the name of Mr. M. S. Sullivan, member for the District of Pleasant and St. Mary's is mentioned.

Faild and Spencer Colleges

Bishop Faild College was re-opened this morning at a school, his Lordship Bishop White and the following directors being present:—Rev. E. C. Egan, Rev. Dr. Power, Rev. Arthur B. Sterling, F. O. Lightbourn, H. Faery, Dr. A. H. Carzell, W. W. Blackhall, B. A. and G. R. Williams. The opening prayers were read by Bishop White after which Mr. Ralph Wood, B.A., Principal, addressed the scholars on the work of the school for the past year, particularly referring to the results of the recent C.H.E. Exams. It is the honor A.A. four entered and three passed successfully. Amongst the school prizes Master Roy Phillips wins the Job Scholarship of $500 per annum provided he agrees to all the conditions on which the scholarship is given. In the Junior A.A. The Right to Choose.

announced that the Intermediate results are expected by S.S. Sachem, and stated that the present staff for the new year is the strongest that the college has ever had and is looking forward to a wonderful year's work, being most optimistic of the future, and he announced that he hoped to finalize the purchase of an athletic field for the college during the year with the help of friends of the institution.

The Bishop addressed the scholars after which the Directors retired and the school settled down for another year's good work. The Directorate then attended Spencer College, which was opened at 4.45. The following additional Directors were present:—Rev. Canon Bell, Rev. Canon Jones, Rev. J. Deaton and Mr. Leonard Opperidge. Miss Cherrington addressed the scholars and announced that she was very pleased indeed with the recent C. H. E. Exams. In the Junior A. A. eighteen candidates entered and sixteen passed in all subjects excepting Physics, eight of whom secured a pass in all subjects. This was a wonderful improvement over previous years and she was very hopeful for the future, and looks forward with anticipation and satisfaction to the Intermediate results to be issued in a few days. Miss Cherrington extended a very warm welcome to Miss Lawrence, B.A., who is a specialist in French, and welcomed Miss Jones, the specialist in Kindergarten work. She also paid a very high compliment to Miss Clark and Miss Parry, who had returned from the staff last year and returned in England. After a short address by the Bishop the pupils exhibited a pretty musical march and returned to their class rooms. The Directorate are very much gratified to see both colleges making steady progress and feel sure that both are now settling down to a pleasant and profitable new year.

HERNARD'S LIVERIES FOR DAN BUIFF.

Husband's Power to Decide Domicile—Sequel to War Marriage to Australian

Can a wife refuse to join her husband in Australia because, before marriage, he promised to make her a home in England? This question was raised at Marylebone during the hearing of an application for a provisional maintenance order on the ground of desertion. Applicant was Mrs. Elsie Wright, of Christchurch Residence, Marylebone, and she was represented by Mr. Foulkes Jones on behalf of the Women and Children's Protection Society. Mr. Jones explained that applicant was married to John Alexander Wright, then an Australian soldier in England, on July 14, 1918. Before marriage applicant objected to going to Australia to live, and Wright promised that he would make a home for her in England. On this condition she married him, and when, shortly afterwards, he departed for Australia to be demobilized, it was understood that he was going to return to live with her. His first correspondence was to this effect, but afterwards he asked her to go out to him and live with him there. Mrs. Wright, in the witness-box declared that had it not been for her husband's promise she would not have married him until he returned to England. Magistrate, Mr. Cancellor: Do you say that if a wife marries an Australian she can make it a condition that she stays in this country? Mr. Jones: She can make it a condition that she will not marry him unless he promises to live in England. Magistrate: But after marriage can she say: "You must not go back to your own country, and if you do you desert me?" Mr. Jones submitted that if the husband agreed to the arrangement and then after marriage insisted on her living in the other end of the earth it amounted to desertion. He had no right to im-

Cheese It.

I chanced upon George Robey the other day at the Shell station at Orkneywood, where he was slimming in Don Quixote. During an interval between the scenes he set us all laughing at a story—told in his old inimitable way—of two newly-rich men, brothers, who had been asked to dine at the house of a famous dancer. At first all went well, until the host, referring to the famous Persian poet, asked: "Do you like Omar Khayyam?" For a minute all was quiet, but at length the elder brother replied: "Pretty well, but I prefer chianti." Nothing more was said until the brothers were on the way home, when the younger one remarked: "Was, Bill, what makes you butt in on something you don't know abkin' about? Omar Khayyam ain't a wine, you silly old—It's a cheese!"
