health, and this was succeeded by a keen attack of inflammatory rheuma tism, which ultimately penetrated to the heart and head-the pain being very severe. Dr. Howitt, who was in attendance upon the patient, was unremitting in his care and attention; but the disease had become too deep seated to be overcome by any skill of the physician, and at five minutes to eight o'clock yesterday even ing (Wednesday) the spirit of George Hough took its flight. Mr. Hough was a man of warm and genial sympathies, and extremely popular with all who were coulson House, such that the bloom of early manhood, and it affords another instance of the uncertainty of life. For many years past the deceased had been assistant in his father's office and also was Clerk of the Police Court and one of the lately appointed Assessors. Mr. How had been a wife and five young children to mourn his less, and they and his other relatives have the deep sympathy of all in their irreparable loss of a good husband, a kind father, and an affectioniste son and brother. ### THE GUELPH POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Sandders, Eags, Police Magistrate, Theursday, Feb. 11th. — Mr. Robert Slewart was charged by the Chief Constable with erecting a weeden building within the limits prohibited by by-law of the municipality of the town. Case adjourned till the 17th, in order to give defendant an opportunity to petition the Council for leave to let the building remain in its present position until the 1st of June.

A BEASTLY MOTHER.—A widow in Lafayette, Indiana, bargained for her daughter's seduction with a dry goods elerk in that city. The unnatural mother locked all the doors, and left them alone together, when the gurl's struggles were overcome by the man's strength. Some of the neighbours remembered having heard unual noises, and as they thought, smothered screams proceeding from the house on the night in question, but it restigating no further in the matter unitimode acquainted with the facts by the heart-broken victim. The girl is about 17 years of age, and was engaged to be married shortly to a worthy young man. Of course measures have been taken for immediate legal investigation.

If such a place as Chicago could be disgraced, that much would have been accomplished by the recent celebration of Tom Paine's birthday, by two hundred and fifty persons, of whom hait were ladies. We are told that there was a sumptuous repast—over a dead infidel be it remembered—and that speeches were made in English and German. But worst of all the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—'Resolved—That we recegnize in Thomas Paine the foremost promoter of American independence, the unleuted champion of the rights of man, and a neable and unselfish benefizetor of his r.c..'

The Irish Republic, published in New York, has bitherto been a staunch supporter of the Fenian movement. It now says: "Gen.O'Neil meves through the country with a staff larger than the King of Dahomy, oh the money wrung from the poor people, living luxuriously while true patriot men are starving in our streets, true patriots pining in dungeons, and women and children starving in Ireland. Ah, foelish people. Oh, beartless knare!"

PUBLIC MELTING. — There will be a public meeting in the Wesleyan Methodist Church this evening at half-past 7 o'clock, when the Rev.W.M.Punshon will be present and deliver an address in regard to the Victoria College Endowment Fund. A cellection will be taken up at the close of the meeting. The public are cordially invited to attend.

A misr, who had heave the control of the meeting.

A miser who had been sent to purgatory for his avarice, heaved a deep sigh as he crossed the threshold. (What, repenting already, cried one of the two imps in attendance. (Oh, I was only thirking of what a prodigious waste of fuel you have here, answered Saveall (would engage to heat the place throughly with two-thirds of the fuel.)

Death of Mr. George Hough, Son of James Hough, Esq., Town Clerk.
Deceased had only been confined to bis bed for about a week, and up till within a few hours of his death it was not supposed that the disease from which he suffered would terminate fatally. A severe cold was the first symptom of illhealth, and this was succeeded by a system of the control of the co

A wag, strolling through a coutry church-yard, called attention to a grave, the stone on which had no name or inscription upon it. "This," said H., "is the grave of a not orious gambler, Mr. R. You observe there is no name on the tombstone; but I could sug-gest an appropriate epitaph."
"What would you suggest?" inquired his friend.
