DIOCESAN SYNOD—The Synod of the Diocese of Toronto met on Tuesday afternoon in the St. James' School House, His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto in the chair. At half-past two the Rev. J. J. BREAKFAST—Epps' Cocoa—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills.

Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps' Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and condensed Milk).

If Chloroform Linctus is held as valuable as we say it is, no family should be without it. Certainly no person, be he lay or doctor, minister, or of any other profession, should stay on a journey without it. No sailor, seaman, or woodman should be without it. In fact, it is a household necessity in every family.

Another case of Bronchitis Croup—Bridgewater, N. S., March 2nd, 1892. Mr. James C. Fellows, Dear Sir,—While in Windsor on a visit to my mother, I fell in with an old physician, Dr. H. C. G. G. G., who had just returned from a journey to the North. He was telling me of a new remedy, which he had used in his practice, and which he had just returned from a journey to the North. He was telling me of a new remedy, which he had used in his practice, and which he had just returned from a journey to the North. He was telling me of a new remedy, which he had used in his practice, and which he had just returned from a journey to the North.

HOW THANKFUL WE SHOULD BE.
Almost all disorders of the human body are distinctly to be traced to impure blood. The purification of that fluid is the first step toward health. The Indian Medicine, widely known as the Great Shoshonee and Pills, commands themselves to the attention of all sufferers. In Scrophulous, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Gout, Rheumatism, Liver and Lung Complaints, Pleurisy, etc., etc. the most beneficial effects have been and always will be obtained from the wholesome power exerted by this Indian Medicine over the system. Persons whose lives have been restored to ease, strength and perfect health, by the Great Shoshonee Remedy and Pills, of poe of medicine, attest this fact.
