To Portfolio Subscribers.

We have arranged to send all portfolios in future direct from our own office to addresses outside the city, thereby relieving our subscribers from any trouble and annoyance in connection with passing the portfolios at the custom house. Send in your orders at once. There will be sixteen numbers in the series. No. 15 is running this week. Remember the portfolios will be mailed in future direct from the Advertiser office, London. Three coupons and 10c secures a copy of each number.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

O, the electric car's a-comin', it's a-comin' right away— The poor man's trav'lin' palace, where a nickel gives him sway, Where the laborer and the rich man have got an equal say— It's comin' with the other signs of summer.

It's comin', it's comin', I hear its wheels a-bummin'; The motorman's a-drummin'; An' poundin' on his gong, It's comin', don't you worry, It's comin' with a flurry, A-bummin' right along.

But it is only to be found in London West so far. —Gold goes up and silver goes down, but the postage stamp continues to pass current at its face value.

—Advertising is expensive, but it often happens that the advertising that is not done costs more than that which is.

—Mrs. Robert Boyd, an old and respected resident, died Friday evening in the city. She was the mother of ex-Ald. John Boyd.

—Mr. Daniel Spry, the new postoffice inspector for this district, will be given a farewell in Barrie Wednesday night before leaving for London.

—Mr. J. J. Kelso, superintendent of neglected children, paid a brief visit to the city to-day and conferred with several officers of the Children's Aid Society.

—Mr. Richard Tosley has packed his dressing case and gone to his home in Middlesex. He will never return to the House that did not appreciate his talent.—[Toronto Telegram.]

—The London Hunt had another cross-country run on Saturday afternoon, in which a large number of the members joined. The course taken was easterly on the fourth concession, and the trip was very enjoyable.

—Col. Beattie proposes to organize a company of volunteers at Walkerville and have them ready for the encampment at London in June. The 1st Battalion have been notified to hold themselves in readiness for training in No. 1 camp of instruction at Wolsely Barracks.

—These seem to be melancholy days for tailors. Michel Rogers suicided last week, and James Campbell, who poisoned himself in Galt, was also a member of the trade. It transpired in evidence that he had come to London, pawned his watch and chain for $5, and searched for work here. Failing to find any he tried Galt in vain, and then put an end to himself in despair. He was an industrious, sober man.

—The work on the mammoth chimney at Springbank is being rapidly pushed forward. It has now reached a height of about 40 feet and may be completed in about two weeks. The boilers have been removed from their former position and placed in the new one built for the purpose. Old fences and other eyesores have been removed, fountains erected, flower beds laid out and other improvements made that enhance its natural beauty greatly. It should be made a favorite resort not only for citizens but for outsiders.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nelles have arrived at Ellet, Mich., where ex-Ald. Thos. Browne and Mrs. Browne, who have been visiting there, met them. The party are expected home to-morrow, when Mr. and Mrs. Nelles will join their family here. Mr. Nelles will be somewhat astonished to learn that while he has been tarrying a month or two in California in order to recuperate his health the conservative agents have been using every endeavor in their power to have him placed in the category of Mr. W. R. Meredith, Toronto's city solicitor, who for years has been a resident in Toronto.

—An Amherstburg dispatch says: The trial of the Rev. W. G. Wye still drags along slowly. The evidence given by Dr. Wye, the last witness for the prosecution, was by far the most sensational since the beginning of the trial. He testified that in January, 1884, while returning from Windsor with Mr. Wye, the latter was in a beastly state of intoxication, and incapable of driving his horses. He also used language in the presence of the witness which was so impure as to be unfit for repetition. His conclusion the commission will go to London to hear the evidence of Dean Innes and Canon Davis, who are familiar with the case.

A Narrow Escape. Mr. McCarthy, a clerk in the Bank of Commerce, had a narrow escape on Saturday night about 9 o'clock. Mr. McCarthy, in company with Mr. Chas. Elinn, was driving down Richmond street, and when near the City Hall, the horse shied at a passing rig. It started south at a lively gallop, and on reaching King street, Mr. Blinn turned east. The street car tracks threw the rig around, broke the car tracks, and Mr. McCarthy was thrown against a telephone pole. He was picked up and carried into Dr. Graham's office, where it was found that the injuries amounted to a severe bruise over the right eye and a bad sinking up.

Londoners in Strathroy. A large audience gathered in the Strathroy Baptist Church on Thursday evening to hear the organ recital and sacred concert. The Young People of the church, having lately purchased from the Bell Organ Company's agency in London a double manual pedal bass organ, applied to Mr. J. W. Fetherston, organist of the Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, to give an evening of sacred music. Mr. Fetherston, with Mr. A. Stockwell and the Misses Hartson, went to Strathroy Thursday and gave the people of that town a musical treat such as is not often enjoyed. Mr. Fetherston's powers were well displayed in the overtures of "Zampa," the "Post and Peasant" and the "Wedding Triumphant Marches." Mr. Stockwell's voice was delightful in the aria, "Jerusalem," and the song, "Judge Me, O God." The Misses Hartson, both in duet and solo, fully satisfied an audience prepared by previous reports to hear singing of no ordinary quality. Miss Hattie Graham, daughter of Rev. John Graham, one of the Methodist pastors of the town, contributed two very excellent readings. The Strathroy people know good music when they hear it, and will gladly welcome again the quartet of musicians who served them so well on this occasion.

Thomas Lee Pardoned.

As recently announced in the ADVERTISER, Thomas Lee, formerly of East London, was lying at the point of death in the Kingston Penitentiary, and had been given up by the doctors. Lee is the young man who two years ago was given a ten years' sentence for being implicated in an affair at Dreaney's Corners. His accomplices, Geo. Lee, George Armstrong and David Moore, were given three, seven and ten years respectively. Thomas Lee, since his incarceration, has been employed in the machine shop, and about three weeks ago caught a severe cold, which turned into pneumonia. His condition gradually became worse, and Mr. James Lee, of Brydges street, East London, and wife, went to Kingston about ten days ago to wait on him during what was thought would be his last hours. While there Mr. Lee communicated with the Ottawa authorities and asked that on account of the condition of the young man a pardon be granted. A reply has been received stating that an order had been issued for his release. Lee will be brought home as soon as he recovers.

Among others who were sent to the penitentiary from London are Burke and Wilson, the slayers of Detective Harry Phair. Burke is employed as messenger in the carpenter shop, while Wilson works in the stone cutting department. Alex. Freeman, serving a life sentence for the murder of P. C. Rankin near Chatham, is on the sick list.

The Trouble Supposed To Be Over Traffic Privileges.

Mayor Essery and Mr. J. W. Little in Detroit.

The Lake Erie and Detroit River Train Arrives—The Early Morning M. C. R. Train Refuses Passengers and Baggage.

The news of the meditated withdrawal from the city of the M. C. R. was a surprise to most citizens. On all hands it was thought that the arrangements had been made satisfactory to the M. C. R. and the city. Neither the mayor or the directors of the London and Southeastern Railway had any intimation of trouble, and it had been agreed between the M. C. R. and the city to leave any possible dispute to arbitration. The orders telegraphed from Detroit on Sunday night to stop receiving freight and baggage and the sale of tickets thus came like thunder from a clear sky. Today all that is possible is being done to retain the road in the city. J. W. Little, president of the London and Southeastern, and Mayor Essery went to Detroit, just before noon, where an M. C. R. board meeting is in progress. The real point of dispute has not yet been made public. On one hand it is said that there is a wrangle over terminals, but as Mayor Essery assured an ADVERTISER reporter that these had all been arranged amicably that is probably not the cause of discord. Again, it is said that the Lake Erie and Detroit River people want all the intervening local traffic between St. Thomas and London and do not care to allow the M. C. R. any pick up on lay-downs traffic whatever between here and the Railroad City. This is more likely to be the cause of the trouble than the first named.

Baggage as well as passengers were refused by the crew of the early morning M. C. R. train to-day. The mails, however, were carried as usual. Baggage was brought back to the Grand Trunk station and shipped with the passengers east and west.

Mr. Laven, Canadian passenger agent, left for St. Thomas on the 9:20 train. This train took what passengers and baggage were offered. To a friend Mr. Laven said that the order of Saturday night was probably due to a misunderstanding, and the board meeting in Detroit to-day at the Grand Trunk station shortly after 11 o'clock to-day. It was the arrival of a spick and span Walkerville train, consisting of an engine and tender, baggage car, second-class car and first-class car. Pedestrians' attention was first called by the unusual deep tone of the bell as it rung for crossings. The cars themselves are painted dark, with gold lettering along the top, reading "Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway." James Porteous was the driver, and it was not the first time that he has reversed a throttle in the G. T. R. yard. As soon as the train came to a standstill a big crowd gathered and kept the hands of the different members of the crew going with the latest Walkerville shake. Driver Porteous is an old Grand Trunk man and had to use both hands. He could have found use for one or two more for a little while if he had had them.

All the trainmen were resplendent in uniform and good looks. So much so that one of the platform news butchers exclaimed to a chum: "Guess Hiram Walker sent all the dudes in Walkerville on that train sure."

Conductor Ambrose Seguer had charge. James Austin and James Flowers, were the firemen. The former will act as relief driver. William Empey is baggage man and S. McGarvey and — Davitt, brakemen. All are residents of Walkerville and will live here in future. Mechanical Superintendent Austin and Auditor Leslie came up with the train. It left Walkerville at 7:30 a.m. The engine has seen some service, but is a splendid specimen. Its number is 2; the baggage car is No. 1; second-class car No. 15, and first-class car No. 5.

The crew went over the road with the M. C. R. at 2:25 this afternoon. Superintendent Woollett was in the city last night.

KNOWLEDGE Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adopting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered. For sale by W. S. Barkwell, city.

A Wonderful Cure. Mr. and Mrs. Chute, of Almer, desire that we should publish their testimonial and let other sufferers know what Williams' Royal Crown Remedy (Nature's Liquid) has done for Mr. Chute. He writes: "For ten years or more I have been a sufferer with dyspepsia, and doctored with six of the most skilled doctors in this part of the country with but little relief and no benefit in return for the very large doctors' bills that I paid. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, but all to no purpose, until April, 1893, when I took to myself a wife, and it so happened that three years previous to our marriage she had been in poor health, and used part of a bottle of Royal Crown Remedy, and, knowing of its excellent qualities, she prevailed upon me to give it a trial. I purchased one bottle of the Remedy and Pills, and by the time I had them used my general health was much improved, and by the time I had taken three bottles I was restored to good health, and my neighbors say that I am looking better than I have done for years. I believe Royal Crown Remedy to be the best value for the money on earth, and am thankfully yours. "WILLIAM CHUTE."
