A DINNER PILLS.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmenter's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convert the food taken into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13.

BREAKFAST—Honey with cream. Stewed rhubarb. Eggs with cream sauce. Rice waffles. Cocoa.

LUNCHEON—Saratoga chips. Cheese fondue. Olives. Toasted crackers. Tea.

DINNER—Planked shad. Flaked potatoes. Fried egg plant. Lettuce and cream salad. Caramel custards. Coffee.

Cut these recipes out and past them in a scrapbook.

Planked Shad—Purchase a plank, at least two inches thick, made from hickory. Just the size of your oven. Have it planed out in the middle, so that the juice will be held rather than running off the edge. Have your fish cleaned and dry, put on the plank, skin side down. Then baste with two tablespoonsful of melted butter, dust with salt and pepper, and cook in the oven for over 20 minutes. When ready to serve, baste again with melted butter, and place parsley and slices of lemon around fish. Be sure and have the plank very hot when you place the fish upon it. Serve on the plank, on a large platter or tray, with a napkin laid between.

Fried Egg Plant—Peel and cut the plant in slices less than one-half inch thick. Place in a quart of water with a tablespoonful of salt for two hours; drain and dip each slice in beaten egg and bread crumbs, and fry brown.

Caramel Custards—Put a half cup of sugar in an iron saucepan over the fire. Stir until the sugar is melted. Add a tablespoonful of lemon juice and turn this into the bottom of six custard cups. Beat three eggs without separating, add to them one and one-half cups of milk, four tablespoonsful of sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla. Mix thoroughly and pour into the cups. Stand in a baking-pan of boiling water and bake twenty minutes. Serve cold.

A Local Budget

—Mr. R. M. Copeland, of Toronto, is in the city.

—Brenner Bros. yesterday shipped their race horses to Windsor.

—Buffalo Bill will bring his Wild West show to Canada in June and July. It will visit London.

—It is understood that the chief of police intends to keep his eye on fast driving and "scorching" on the park and Dufferin avenue.

—Programmes for concerts and entertainments printed on shortest notice and in best designs at The Advertiser Job Department.

—As will be seen by the advertisement in another column, J. & D. Ross are having a sale prior to their removal to 196 Dundas street.

—The London Advertiser Job Printing establishment makes a great specialty of poster work. No better posters are printed in Canada.

—Mrs. Boomer, of this city, will receive the support of Hamilton Council of Women for the position of vice-president of the National Council.

—Mrs. Cooper (formerly Miss Lillywhite) will be one of the bright particular stars at the sacred concert in First Presbyterian Church next Tuesday evening.

—The street railway company are rapidly pushing the extension to their line below Springbank, and will in a few days be able to take passengers to within a stone's throw of Byron.

—Mrs. Irwin and her daughter, of this city, who are prominent ladies in the First Presbyterian Church, leave for Toronto shortly, where they will in future reside with Mr. Frank Irwin.

—Mr. John Clark, of Knox College, will occupy the pulpit of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Toronto, during the summer months, while the pastor, Rev. John Neil, pays a visit to Great Britain.

—At the assizes in St. Thomas on Tuesday, the grand jury returned no bill against Edward Dutton, the London man who had charge of the engine, the boiler of which exploded on the Ferguson farm, North Yarmouth, killing Wm. Forbes.

—The Toronto Evening News says: "The employees in the G. T. R. shops at Brantford who have property in London have been notified that their services will be required in London as soon as the new shops are ready for occupation."

—The complaint against flower thieves in South London is becoming more and more general. Last night and the night before a number of beautiful hyacinths, crocuses, and other spring flowers were stolen from the beds of Col. Leys, and James O. Weldon. Some steps should at once be taken to detect the thieves, as there is little satisfaction in trying to beautify the city when the results of toil and expense are thus liable to be snatched away by nocturnal marauders.

—What might have proved a very serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon. Mr. N. W. Emerson, druggist, Richmond street, was wheeling along Park avenue, when an exceedingly smart young man on a bicycle shot from the park at a terrific rate and attempted to cross in front of him instead of behind. Mr. Emerson, who could not save himself, received a severe fall, and although he received no serious injury the result would have been very difficult had the victim been one of the ladies or new riders who were passing in a continuous stream at the time. of the trouble did not even stop to ask the extent of damage, but continued his wild career. Such reckless scorching cannot be too strongly condemned.

—The Love Band of the Salvation Army on Tuesday gave a farewell tea to Sister Lizzie Featherstone, who will leave today for Ripley. A good programme was rendered after tea, as follows: Duet, J. L. Smith and W. J. Kerswell; address, Alf. Vick; duet, Laura Russell and Capt. Dover; solo, Bro. Harwood; address, Capt. Dover after which Sister Featherstone replied. The meeting was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again." Capt. Dover presided in his usual good style. Miss Featherstone carries with her the best wishes of her many friends in London.

—Being in business in Galt for a couple of months Mr. Joseph Goldner, tobaccoist (formerly of London), today closed down his establishment. When he had first visited the town, he felt that there was an opening for a first-class tobacco business, but after fitting up a store in the best style, and reading room in the rear, supplied with the leading daily papers, getting in a large stock of the choicest brands of goods, and selling them at the lowest possible price, he had come to the conclusion that the tobacco trade in Galt was too much monopolized by the barbers and druggists, and that it would be useless for him to attempt to try to build up a business in the face of such competition.
