MARKED PROGRESS FOR SETTLING OF THE DOMINION THE BOUNDARY

As Shown by Deputy Finance Minister's Report. Sir Michael Herbert and Mr. Hay Sign a Treaty.

WORK GROWS IN DEPARTMENT TRIBUNAL FOR ALASKAN CASE

Last Year's Receipts Were $7,291,398 in Excess of the Expenditures.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—The Dominion of Canada has arrived at a state of development that even the most sanguine Canadian of these days hardly dreamed of, and there is every likelihood that the progress of the coming years will be even greater.

So declares J. M. Courtney, Deputy Minister of Finance, in a brief comparison of conditions now with those of a quarter of a century ago, when he was first appointed to his present position. Mr. Courtney goes on to say: "As the business of the country increased in like proportion the department increased in like proportion. The total amount of Dominion notes in circulation has increased threefold. The deposits in the savings banks, both Government and private, have increased over sevenfold. Owing to the development of banking facilities throughout the country in consequence of the opening up of branches on the various chartered banks, the number of deposit entries has very largely increased. The total turnover in cash of the transactions of the department has advanced from $5,085,954 on June 30, 1870, to $223,031,827 on June 30, 1902. All the work entailed by this expansion has been met without the slightest increase in the cost of the department. The foregoing remarks by Mr. Courtney are to be found in the public accounts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, which have just appeared. This volume discloses the fact that the receipts on account of consolidated fund aggregate $58,050,790, and the expenditure on the same account for the same period $50,759,391, so that there was a surplus of receipts over expenditures amounting to $7,291,398.

The capital expenditure was $13,211,407, from which have to be deducted the surplus of receipts, amounting to $7,291,398, and $1,543 of refunds on account of the Northwest rebellion, making $5,920,009 in all. The balance, which is the amount of the year, $7,291,398, was added to the net debt, which at the close of the fiscal year stood at $271,829,089.

The capital expenditure was divided up as follows: Up of railways, $9,408,102; Dominion lands, $370,337; militia, $2,939,697; railway subsidies, $2,095,933; the South African contingents and Halifax garrison, $741; iron and steel bounties, $31,089.

At the close of the fiscal year the balance at the credit of depositors in the postoffice and Government savings banks amounted to $38,487,370, an increase of $2,389,029 64 over the balance held on June 30, 1901. Part of this increase, $1,662,258 32, represents interest added to the balance, and the remainder, $726,771 38, the excess of receipts over withdrawals.

The average rate of interest paid on the gross debt for the year was 2.03, as compared with 2.12 in the previous year, and the net rate of interest paid has fallen from 2.60 to 2.57.

Interesting Experience in a Restaurant.

An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while on a recent western trip, was dining one evening in a Pittsburgh restaurant. While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a certain medicine, a preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; as he himself was a regular user of the tablets he began speculating on the possibility of their being useful to his friends of the popular remedy for indigestion.

He says: "I counted 33 men at the tables and in the hotel office. I told the trouble to interview them and was surprised to learn that 9 of the 23 made a practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal."

One of them told me he had suffered so much from stomach trouble that at one time he had been obliged to quit the road, but since using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets had been entirely free from indigestion, but he continued their use, especially while traveling, on account of irregularity in meals and because, like all traveling men, he was often obliged to eat what he could get and not always what he wanted. "Another, who looked the picture of health, said he never ate a meal without taking a Stuart's Tablet afterward, because he could eat what he pleased and when he pleased, without fear of a sleepless night or any other trouble."

"Still another used them because he was subjected to gas on stomach, causing pressure on heart and lungs, shortness of breath and distress in chest, which he no longer experienced since he had taken the tablets."

Another claimed that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was the only safe remedy he had ever found for sour stomach, common soda to relieve the trouble, but the tablets were much better and safer to use.

"After drinking, smoking or other excesses which weaken the digestive organs, nothing restores the stomach to a healthy, wholesome condition so effectively as Stuart's Tablets."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the natural digestive, pepsin, diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, as well as nux, hydrastin and yellow parilla, and can be safely relied upon as a radical cure, for every form of poor digestion. Sold by druggists everywhere.

To Be Composed of Six Jurists, Three on Each Side, With No Umpire.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Secretary Hay and Sir Michael Herbert, the British ambassador on Saturday signed a treaty providing for the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question. Efforts in this direction have been put forth for a long time, the pressure coming from both sides, the Canadian miners being anxious to get through the Klondike to the sea without passing through American territory and the Americans insisting upon their right to the coast line and the control of the ports.

The treaty signed Saturday provides for the reference of all these boundary questions to a mixed tribunal of jurists, three on each side, to determine the interpretation to be placed on the treaty of 1855 between Great Britain and Russia, which defined the boundaries between British America and Alaska.

This proposition is virtually the same as that brought forward by the American members of the joint high commission which met in Washington three years ago, but which then was rejected by British and Canadian representatives. It has taken three years to obtain the consent of the British and Canadian Governments to adjust the boundary dispute on this basis.

It is understood that the treaty has been drawn up after a thorough consultation with the leading members of the Senate of both political parties, the administration desiring to do everything possible in advance to secure its ratification.

The commission proposed is curious in composition, consisting of an equal number of members upon each side, an umpire or odd man to cast the deciding vote. No other terms of arbitration would have been acceptable to the people of the Northwest, who see in this arrangement a practical extinction of the chance of a decision hostile to their plans. On the other hand, to get a verdict favorable to the American claim, our case must be so strongly presented as to win the support of at least one of the Canadian contingent.

The treaty will be submitted to the United States Senate very soon, and the effort will be made to ratify it before the expiration of the present session.

PLEASES BRITAIN.

London, Jan. 26.—The signature at Washington of the Anglo-American treaty to settle the Alaskan dispute has given great satisfaction to the English press, on the ground that it gives at a critical moment in the Venezuelan troubles an undoubted proof of the unimpaired friendliness existing between Great Britain and the United States. This is the point which is elaborated in all the editorials on the subject, almost to the exclusion of the intrinsic merits of the arrangement, which, it is said, is not to be entered into until the United States Senate will accept the treaty, and that the commission will ultimately meet in London, but regard is expressed that no provision is made for the appointment of an umpire, because, in the event of the commission being equally divided in opinion, it is said the controversy will be very nearly neutralized. One paper thinks that in this event the dispute would be referred to The Hague tribunal. It is hoped, however, that the publication of the text of the treaty may show a more favorable prospect of the commission arriving at a compromise, thus settling a long-standing controversy.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Stella Wright, a young woman acting as housekeeper for William F. Lewis, 449 State street, was killed by Lewis on Friday with a hatchet, the head of the woman being cut open.

Lewis was arrested after a desperate fight. While on the way to the police station he requested one of the officers to loosen his grasp a little, and as soon as the officer complied, Lewis snatched a razor from his pocket and cut his own throat.

He admitted killing the woman, and said he had left letters which would give his reasons for the crime. The letter written by Lewis is as follows: "I am the cause of this.
