BAYLEY'S

BILLY SMITH'S CONVERSION SMUGGLING ON A PULLMAN

The Reformed Pugilist Tells of His Experience.

Remarks at a Salvation Army Meeting in the Bowery.

New York, Oct. 8.—The ark of salvation chose the humble stage of Miner's Theater as its resting place the other day. The crew was 50 strong, and they delivered themselves of 23 songs set to the music of popular airs, from "The Good Old Summer Time" to "Hiawatha."

The three score Salvationists are being led by Commander Booth-Tucker on a crusade of the Bowery. The most notable among them was "Billy" Smith, ex-featherweight pugilist, and his wife, Billy, slim, good looking, and pugilistically developed. He told a story about a former friend who poured a lamp of burning oil over his wife and is now in prison for it.

"I'd been like that, myself," confessed the featherweight Salvationist, "if my wife hadn't got typoid and promised to Lord that if she ever well should join de Salvation Army, one night her an' me passed the meeting place of corps 16."

"Come along, Billy," she said. "We're in here," said I. "Not for me. Not for a thousand."

"Honest," interjected Billy, taking the audience into his confidence, "I thought you was all a lot of grafters." Officer Spitz here took advantage of a shout from the bowdleries to this effect:

I remember well the day When I was a bad, bad man, Far away.

"I'd let her tell me 'I go down among you an' a row down, I'd do it," concluded Billy, before getting down.

Dreaded Results of Kidney Disease.

Allments of the Most Painful and Fatal Nature Prevented and Cured by
Kidney-Liver Pills.

When you think of the pain and suffering which accompany backache, rheumatism, lumbago, stone in the kidneys and bladder; when you think of the dreadful fatality of Bright's disease, dropsy, diabetes and apoplexy, you may well wonder why people neglect to keep the kidneys in perfect order, for all these ailments are the direct result of deranged kidneys.

Once the kidneys fail to filter from the blood the impure and poisonous waste matter there is trouble of a painful and dangerous nature. Among the first symptoms are backache, weak lame back, pains in the legs and sides, deposits in the urine, impaired digestion, loss of flesh, energy and ambition, stiffness and soreness in the joints and feelings of weariness and lassitude.

Prevention is always better than cure, and hence the advisability of using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on the very first indication of such derangement. Whether to prevent, or cure, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most effective treatment you can obtain, for besides their direct and specific action on the kidneys, they keep the bowels regular and the liver active, and hence purify the system and remove the cause of the trouble.

This medicine has long since proven its right to first place as a cure for the complicated and serious derangements of the filtering and excretory organs. It has the largest sale and is endorsed by more people than any similar treatment, and it is a waste of time and money and a risk to life itself to trifle with new and untried remedies when Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are at hand. One dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

Outcome of the Arrests Made at Port Huron.

Agent and Conductor Discharged—The Colored Porter Held.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 8.—Charles Thomas, tourist agent of the Pullman Car Company, and John Mullen, the conductor arrested on a charge of smuggling, were discharged yesterday by United States Commissioner Harris, but W. N. Crawford, the colored porter, arrested at the same time, has been held.

Mullen stated that he was entirely ignorant of the smuggling, and that he came on the car at Montreal, and this was his first trip this way. The smuggling act which was nipped in the bud is a scheme of bringing Chinamen into the country. As high as $1,000 each is paid, and it is stated that Chinamen in the United States put up the money.

Collier's Weekly.

A new series of Sherlock Holmes stories is announced. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is said to receive an almost fabulous price for these. The stories will appear in Collier's Weekly in America. The first installment of the series appears in the Household number of Collier's for October. It is entitled "The Adventure of the Empty House," and is illustrated by F. D. Steele. The frontispiece is a handsome, full-page, colored drawing, "A successful Summer," by Francis Day. Chinese Dama Gibson contributes one of his striking character sketches, "The Weaker Sex." As usual, Collier's contains a variety of articles by noted writers that cannot fail to instruct and entertain.

China and Her Opportunities, is a timely paper by Sir Shen-tung Liang-cheng, Chinese minister to the United States. In contrast, Mrs. Leslie Carter tells "What Red-headed Women Should Wear." Then there are and pictures in profusion.

The Engineer's Signal.

Two low whistles faint and clear, That was the signal the engineer— "That was the signal that Guld," "tis said. Sang as it flew.

Down past the farms, lying white, he sped. As a husband's greeting, scant, no doubt, Watching and waiting, no serene, Love song or midnight roundelay, Said what the whistle seemed to say: "To my trust true, So love to you!"

Working or waiting, good-night!" it said. Brisk young bagman, tourists fine, Old commuters along the line, Urkmen and porters glanced ahead, Smiled as the signal, sharp, intense, Pierced through the shadows of Providence.

Nothing amiss— "Nothing is wrong with my wife," they said. Summer and winter the old refrain, Rang over the billows of ripening grain, Rang through the budding, budding, o'erhead, Like living coals from the engine spurned;

First of all duty! Good-night!" it said. And the first one night it was heard no more. From Rivington over Rhode Island shore, And the folk in Providence smiled and said, As they turned to their beds: "The engine has once forgotten his midnight cheer."

Only one knew. To his trust true, Guld lay under his engine dead.

IT IS THE FARMER'S FRIEND.—The farmer will find in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a potent remedy for wounds or pains in the body or for affections of the respiratory organs, and for household use generally. He will also find it a com-

Barwick, Rainy River, Oct. 5.—Rheumatism, one of the terrors of this new country, cannot stand before Dodd's Kidney Pills. This is the pleasant experience of many settlers. W. J. Dixon is one of them. He speaks as follows:

"During the summer of 1901 I had an attack of Typhoid Fever, and Rheumatism set in as one of the after-effects. I had pains in my back and right hip so bad I had to use a stick to walk. I could scarcely dress myself for nearly two months, and for three or four weeks I could not lace my right shoe."

"On my brother's advice I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. After taking three boxes I began to walk and do my work. I was cured and I have had no pain since."

Dodd's Kidney Pills take the uric acid out of the blood and the Rheumatism goes with it.

A Quick Toothache Cure. Saturate a little cotton ball with Poison's Nervine, plug the cavity, and rub the gums with Nervine. Relief is instantaneous because Nervine acts at once on the nerves and drives away the pain. It's cheaper to have Nervine handy than to visit a dentist, so get a bottle today. It's valuable in any household and cures toothache, neuralgia, sick headache and stomach troubles. Poison's Nervine is safe, prompt and sure to cure every pain and ache that is imminent. Thousands employ Nervine. Why not you? Price 25 cents for a large bottle at all druggists.

THE PRISONER'S STORY. Kennedy claims that on the fateful Wednesday afternoon, he was in Victoria Park, shortly after 1 o'clock. That he took a glass of lager at the hotel, then he proceeded along Darling street to Jubilee Park. That he sat down there for half an hour or so and then went down to Victoria Park. That he was sitting down to go to then as he was drinking. He then came up town and had a drink at both the American and Woodbine hotels. That he was then with a chum who had boarded at the Jex hotel with him. When the crowds came up from the bowels, they were met this chum at 8:30 next morning in front of the Big 22, and gone with him to Hamilton.

An inquiry at Slingsby's resulted in the information that an Englishman had been working there at night, but had left. He had been drinking the day he got his pay. This is the man apparently referred to by Kennedy. He and his chum walked up Market street as far as the G. T. R. station, and then had returned, the prisoner going down to Hunt & Co.'s shop to sleep. Kennedy has engaged Messrs. Heyd, Livingstone & Couch to look after his interests in future.

KENNEDY CLAIMS HE IS INNOCENT

Alleged Slayer of Irene Cole Before Police Court.

NO NEW EVIDENCE ELICITED

Chat With the Prisoner—Insists That He is Innocent—Is an Intelligent Man.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 8.—Long before the opening hour there was a large crowd waiting on the street outside the police court, some wanting to get a good look at the prisoner, and others anxious to get a good place in court to hear the trial, but only a few were admitted. The trial of Joseph Kennedy for murder of Irene Cole on Wednesday was begun at police court this morning. A. J. Wilkes, K. C., Heyd, Livingstone & Couch, is looking after Kennedy's interests. The evidence so far is similar to that given at the coroner's inquest, showing that the child was first missed, and identifying Kennedy and his being at the Willows. The court adjourned at noon.

CHAT WITH KENNEDY. A Courier reporter had a half-hour chat in the jail with Kennedy, and says he is an intelligent man, gives his age as 30, and his occupation as that of a groom or coachman. His home is in Dublin, but he has worked in Glasgow and other places, and was for five months with the Irish Horse in South Africa.

"The fighting was all over when I got there," said Kennedy. "I hardly as much as saw a Boer." Asked if he was guilty or not guilty of the terrible crime placed at his door, Kennedy emphatically stated: "I am not guilty. If I was guilty I would say so. The papers with an account of this affair in have gone all over the world, and I was guilty it wouldn't be much use of my living."

DRANK A GOOD DEAL. Previous to last Wednesday the prisoner admitted that he had been drinking a good deal, but said he never conducted himself in a disorderly way. Kennedy places very great faith in the result of the analysis of the stains found on his clothing. He persists in the statement that the stains are not human blood. The prisoner seems to be degenerate, being in jail until next spring, which will be the result if he is committed by the police magistrate.

He is decidedly an intelligent man, and his relatives in Ireland are of the well-to-do working class. He has a brother who was employed until quite recently in Robinson Cleaver's big Irish linen house, as a cutter of shirts and collars. His father, who was a coachman, and his mother are both dead. In religion Kennedy is a Protestant, the family being Church of England. He is an Orangeman, although having left Belfast shortly after his initiation in one of the lodges there, he has never kept up his connection with the order.

The prisoner is engaged to an Irish girl who was for some years employed in the same department of a Toronto firm. She returned to Ireland, but was to have rejoined Kennedy in this country as soon as he secured a position.

KENNEDY'S STORY. Kennedy claims that on the fateful Wednesday afternoon, he was in Victoria Park, shortly after 1 o'clock. R. station, and then had returned, the prisoner going down to Hunt & Co.'s shop to sleep. Kennedy has engaged Messrs. Heyd, Livingstone & Couch to look after his interests in future.

The prisoner is a very civil man. He talks intelligently and impresses everyone he comes in contact with of the sincerity of his plea that he is not guilty. All along he has protested that the examination of the stains found on his clothes would prove that they were not human blood. He admits that his falling in drink, but protests that his character has otherwise always been above reproach.

THE MOCKING BIRD TONIGHT. One of the biggest musical attractions to appear at the Grand this season will be the romantic comic opera, "The Mocking Bird," which will be presented tonight. The bright, particular star of this organization is Madeline Besley, a young aspirant for stardom, who has been highly recommended from other cities where she has already been seen. She is not only a very pretty girl, but brings an air of refinement and culture to everything she does, appealing strongly to both men and women, by her winsomeness, grace and sweet musical voice.

"The Mocking Bird" is considered one of the best lyric plays of the season. The book is by Sydney Rosenfeld, and the music, which is by A. Baldwin Sloane, is promised to be the catchiest that has been heard in recent years.

"A MONTANA OUTLAW." "A Montana Outlaw," a western play, by Herbert Hall Winslow and Fred S. Gibbs, will be seen at the Grand tomorrow, tonight and next night. The play is a story of a man who is hunted by a band of outlaws.

"THE CRISIS." As a play "The Crisis" has won fully as great success as did its precursor, the novel. Mr. Winston Churchill, who turned his novel into a play, has done the work most skillfully, presenting a stage version of the novel which never for a moment disappoints those who are acquainted with the book.
