PEDESTRIANS ESCAPE
AS FLAGPOLE TOPPLES

The O. D. E. flag pole at Port Stanley recently blew over, toppling it, and missing pedestrians by inches.

The flag pole, which was over 75 feet high, broke in three places as it hit the pavement below with terrific force.

This flag pole was one of the more recent landmarks of Port Stanley, having been erected by the Daughters of the Empire during the great war. It also marked the center of the village.

CARS PUT AWAY.

The snow at Port Stanley, which is now eight inches deep in many places, made it possible for many of the farmers in the district to put their cars away for the winter and replace them with sleighs. A cart of any kind now at the port is considered a novelty, and the merry jingle of the bells gives a genuine Christmas tone.

WILL BE GIVEN WORK.

Half a dozen farm hands who have finished their contracts with Western Ontario farmers arrived at the office of Immigration Inspector John Farrell this morning. The men will all be placed on farms for the rest of the winter. Mr. Farrell stated as there is always a waiting list of farmers anxious for reliable help.

SUFFERS BROKEN ARM.

Mrs. Kenney, 75 Evergreen avenue, broke her arm near the shoulder last night when she slipped and fell on the icy sidewalk at the foot of Evergreen avenue. Mrs. Kenney is under the care of Dr. James D. Wilson.

News From City Churches

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.
The members of the W. M. S. of the First Congregational church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. H. Martyn, Waterloo street, when Mrs. F. A. Stevens, the president, presided. Mrs. George K. Harris of China, who is home on furlough, gave a very interesting talk on her work and the superstitions of the Chinese people. She also told of the efforts of the missionaries to give these people the Christian idea of Christmas. Mrs. Buck and Miss E.

Moule contributed a beautiful distribution to the program, and during the afternoon plans were made for a thank-offering meeting, to be held in January, when Miss Reid, a returned missionary from Africa, will speak.

Mrs. Martyn served afternoon tea to her guests and was assisted by Mrs. Brougham.

NEW ST. JAMES RECEPTION.
In honor of Miss Lillian McVicar, missionary from London, India, the members of the New St. James' Presbyterian church entertained her at the home of Mrs. R. J. Webster, Wellington street, on Wednesday night. The rooms were prettily decorated with "mums and reds," and Miss McVicar, the president, received the guests. During the evening an informal program was given by the members of the church, and a social hour followed, when light refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Blanche Hollingsworth and Miss Jean Stevenson.

EPHRAIM CHURCH.
A very successful bazaar was held this week by the women of the Epiphany church at Cronyn hall where the booths, attractively decorated, were a great help to the cause. Nearly all the visitors also found their way to the pretty tea room, with its pink and green decorations, where Mrs. M. Shore and Miss C. Smith were in charge. The other conveners included: Mrs. Ackert, home cooking; Mrs. C. Ball, fancy and plain sewing; Mrs. Andrew, Miss C. Smith, Mrs. H. H. Hiles, Miss D. Bugler and Miss H. Dale, toys and candy; and Mrs. F. Young, fish pond.

In the evening Mrs. H. Hiles led the directors of a delightful cantata entitled "Glimpses From the Life of Moody and Sankey," which was greatly enjoyed. The choir, which was assisted by a social hour members from the choir of St. James' Anglican church. This part of the program was opened by the hymns, which were given by Rev. W. L. Hiles in prayer, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. Wray.

The W. M. S. of Wellington street church gathered at the church at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and took the car to the Robinson Memorial Methodist church. They were met at the door by the president, Mrs.
W. J. Wray, formerly of Wellington street church, who also took the chair for the first part of the meeting.
