

Two shaggy bear cubs of the hyperborean breed have been forced to forsake their home in the frigid ice wastes of the northland for the Riverdale zoo, Toronto. One of the newly-acquired denizens of this zoo is shown above.

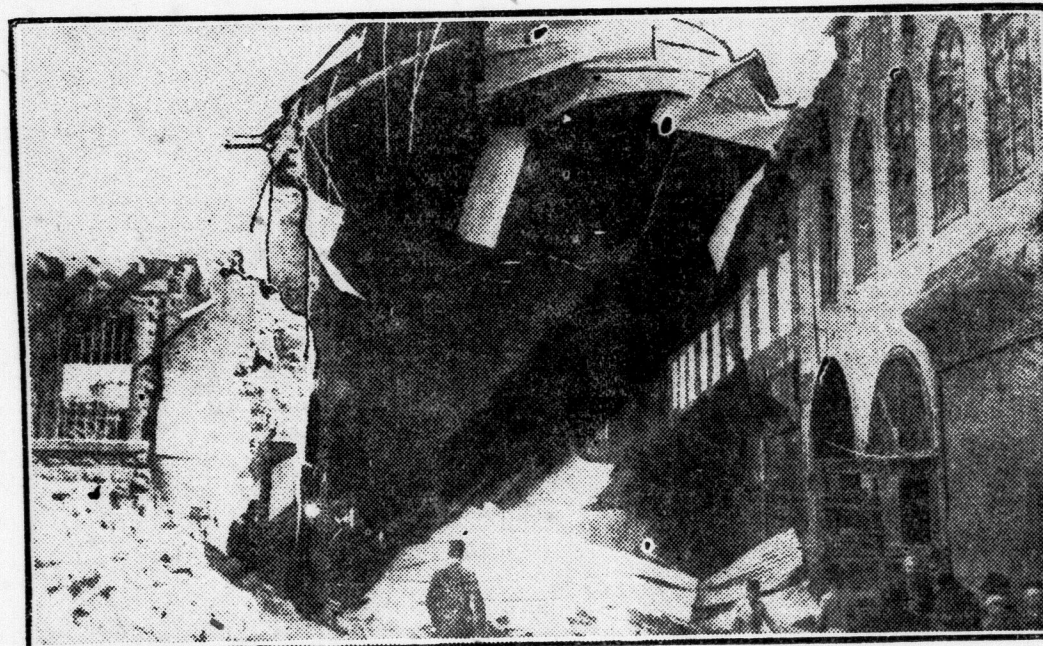

Left—Striking United States navy and marine memorial nears completion. The gulls are supported by an invisible rod. It will be placed in Washington. Over 150,000 citizens contributed to the fund. Right—Mrs. Neilson Terry, noted English actress, sails for England with her children and her husband sees her off. He will follow shortly. Above—Clara Morris, once acclaimed one of the greatest emotional actresses and known as the "woman of sorrow," who is dead at the age of 79. She was born in Toronto, Ont. Often she suffered from almost complete blindness.

Mr. Justice Roche of the King's Bench divisional court, England, who was recently made the recipient of scurrilous letters from an unsuccessful litigant. Among other things he was called a "coward." Freeman has been summoned for contempt of court.

Harvard and Yale battle to scoreless tie in their big game of Soldiers' field, Cambridge, Mass. The photo shows the men of Eli thrusting back the enemy within the shadow of the goalposts, while thousands look on. Note the elaborate scoreboard.

"The Street Called Straight" in ruins after the French bombardment on Damascus, old world city. The censorship prevents full details of the shelling being available.

Mr. F. Roper, the only survivor of the College street Baptist church, Toronto, at the reopening of the church after the fire. It was restored at a cost of $100,000.

JAPANESE ROYALTY ON WORLD TOUR. Prince and Princess Asa of Japan, who recently arrived in New York on their way home from a trip round the world. The Princess Asa is a sister of the Empress of Japan.

Mrs. Harold Lloyd bids her comedian-husband farewell before he takes off on his first flight after joining the "Red Dragon" flying squadron of the United States naval reserve.

Parisiennes have entered the "sandwich" game with such success that already the professional gentry are being relegated to the background. The quintet shown above are advertising a current movie.

Beautiful sunset scene at the Saginaw River, Quebec. Such is the beauty of this river that thousands of people from Ontario journey to the wondrous scenery.

Bruce Morris, plucky London, Ont., youth demonstrates his courage by driving the "Speed Goat."