SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. JAMES

McCREE

The community was shocked Sunday morning on hearing of the sudden death of Mr. James McCre, who passed away after a couple of hours illness. He was in his usual health on retiring Saturday night and was taken suddenly ill about 7 o'clock Sunday morning. The end coming about 9 o'clock.

In December 1921 Mr. McCre bought the hardware business and property of Mr. Theod. Dodds in his family, where for many years he had owned and conducted a sawmill. He was born in Brantford, Ont., and was in his 65th year at the time of his death. Besides his widow he leaves two sons, Lawrence and Frank, both at home. Since coming to Watford he made many friends.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 10 p.m. at St. Mary's church. The burial was in the cemetery. Mr. McCre was a member of the St. Mary's church and was a member of the Presbyterian minister, of whose church Mr. McCre was a faithful member. The funeral was held at the family residence, 1700 St. Mary's street, at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McCre, and a brother-in-law, Mr. William Smith.
