Straightway the Republicans step forward and order the speech by the thousant owen to Northern constituencies. The speech of Lamar, in which he extolled provided the wood of the wood of

We have been afflicted this week with another instalment of "Louisiana liars." It did not need these to satisfy the country that Louisiana politics have sunk to lower depths than can be fathomed. How much of all this the reign of such men as Senator Kellogg is responsible for can hardly be told; but that he is a prince of rascals is beyond question. The witnesset brought here in the investigation of Kellogg's right to his seat in the Senate are a bad lot. Before coming, some of them made affidavits to his seat in the Senate are a bad lot. Before coming, some of them made affidavits to having received money for their votes; but upon arrival here they were intercepted by the wilv Senator or his agenta and "fixed," so that they go back on their first statement. This is what the Democrate

There is every reason to expect Congre to adjourn next week. The bills can all be passed in four days, and if they come be passed in four days, and if they come out in such shape as not to encounter a veto, that will end the matter. And now the over worked and enterprising Washington Monument Commission have taken a rest for the summer. Nobody can discover anything they have done for months, but they came together the other day and solumnly resolved to suspend during the hot weather. When these poor tellows are put under the sod, perhaps somebody will suggest that the old rusty shaft now under their protection be dedicated to their memories.
