

CHAPTER XXXIII.

INTERESTS OF CANADA, THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY AND THE INDIANS, COULD BE COMBINED.

Charter of the Hudson's Bay Company does not validly cover the territory we desire, though their lease of Indian Territories does, while it lasts.—That Territory is still the property of the Crown and the Indians.—Company's occupation creditable to them and beneficial generally.—Final advantage of liberal arrangement with them and with the Indians, especially for the care and protection of the latter..... 150

CHAPTER XXXIV.

COMPARATIVE VALUE OF THE SEVERAL SECTIONS OF TERRITORY TO CANADA ; AND CONCLUSION..... 155
