

the same roof or still living under one common paternal authority.

These masses are said agreeably to the intentions of the subscribers, to obtain for them all the graces which they beg of Saint Anne, by private invocation, by novenas, by masses, and in performance of vows and pilgrimages in her honor. Persons recommended to prayers in the Annals have a large share in the fruit of these two masses.

2. Moreover one mass is offered monthly for the souls of dead subscribers, whether or not their family has ceased to subscribe to the Annals.

3. Subscribers are requested to remember that the price of subscription is payable in advance, and that, on that condition only they become entitled to the above spiritual advantages.

4. Persons wishing to subscribe must send their names legibly written, as also the exact name of the place where they reside.

5. For all sums less than a dollar, postage stamps of 1, 2 or 3 cents will be accepted.

7. The price of subscription for individuals receiving their number separately is 35 cents.

7. The following advantages are offered to those who receive several copies under the same band, and to the same address.

From 7 to 50 copies, 30 cents each; from 50 to 100, 28 cents each; 100 copies and more, 25 cents each. Besides this diminution, every thirteenth copy is given gratis to the person receiving more than twelve.

All correspondence must be addressed to the:

REVEREND C. E. CARRIER,
Director of the "Annals of Saint Anne"
Levis College,
Province of Quebec, Canada.