

countries for earnest prayer and liberal aid. All that has been accomplished by this and kindred associations is but a beginning of the work that requires to be done. About one million French Canadians are in great spiritual darkness, many of whom are asking for light. Providence seems to indicate that the conversion to Christ of the French speaking Roman Catholics of Canada, is a work to which the Protestants of this country are specially called. Enjoying the same civil rights and privileges as we do ; sharing the material prosperity of a young and growing country ; engaging to some extent in the commercial enterprises of the Dominion, and above all hastening with us to the eternal world ; shall we answer " am I my brother's keeper ?" and withhold from them that " Gospel which is the power of God unto salvation" and hide from them the light we have received ? At our peril we do so. God has given us our privileges and all our blessings both spiritual and temporal that we may share with those who have them not. In proportion as churches have thrown themselves into Missionary work have they been prospered.

" For we must share, if we would keep,
That good thing from above,
Ceasing to give, we cease to have :
Such is the law of love."

* The Committee ask the friends of the Redeemer united with them in this Mission to remember it in all their approaches to the throne of grace. The formidable obstacles in the way of complete success, can be removed only by Him, with whom is the residue of the Spirit, and in answer to earnest persevering prayer, He will send showers of promised and desired blessing.
