

this fund, who shall be considered as Church Society Missionaries, Catechists, &c., and entered as such in the annual report, with the sums granted to them.

Your committee would further recommend that the Missionaries and all other persons who are paid or assisted from this fund, be required, as a condition of their being continued on this fund, to make quarterly reports to the bishop, for the information of the society, of the work done by them, with any facts connected with the work of the Church which may be interesting; which reports, or abstracts of them, shall be published in the annual report, or in any other manner if thought desirable, at the discretion of the standing committee.

All reports to be sent in on the 1st February, May, August, and November of each year.

Your committee would recommend that all payments from this fund, made according to the proposed arrangement, shall be paid quarterly, at the same periods as the payments from the commutation fund, and in the same way.

All which is respectfully submitted.

TO THE REV. JAMES SMYTHE, B.A.,
Incumbent of St James' Church, St. Mary's.

REV AND DEAR Sir,—Deeply impressed as we are with your worth as our Christian Pastor, and knowing the great interest you have always taken in the eternal welfare of those over whom the Lord has placed you, and as a sincere friend to all your social intercourse with us, we beg to tender to you and your amiable wife and family our sincere wishes that the wise Disposer of all our destinies may spare you and them to spend many happy years amongst us, and as a trifling token of our esteem and respect, hope you will accept of the accompanying pocket-book and its contents.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,
FANNY J. HILL.

TO MRS. HILL, AND JAMES PARKE, ESQ.

MY DEAR FRIENDS.—The kind address accompanied with a purse containing more than $100, which you have presented to me has surprised and overcome me. I cannot sufficiently express my thanks for this Christian offering, which valuable as it is in itself, I appreciate much more when regarded as a "token of esteem and respect." I have received many proofs of affectionate regard from my flock during the short time I have had the happiness of being their Pastor, I trust they shall not be the less valued because numerous. There is not any thing which can afford more encouragement to a clergyman in the discharge of his duties than words of confidence such as have been now addressed to me, while they have made me feel a deep sense of my unworthiness, may they excite me to greater diligence in labouring for the salvation of the people committed to my charge.

I value highly the kind wishes and prayers of which you speak, I hope they will be offered more constantly to God, that my ministry may be blessed to the edification and comfort of His people. As to the wish that I may "spend many happy years amongst you," I cannot but desire the continuance of a position which the kindness of the people has made so pleasant, and nothing is wanting to complete my happiness but a more abundant blessing of the Lord upon my labours.

The kind expressions respecting my wife and family are greatly appreciated and warmly reciprocated by us. Be so good as to convey to the congregation my grateful sense of this free-will offering and expression of their "esteem and respect" which in many instances must have been the result of self-sacrifice and made at a time when they were called upon to contribute largely towards the general expenses of the Church.

I am, my dear friends,
Your sincere friend and Pastor,
J. SMYTHE.
