

CHIEF CHARACTERISTICS

OF THE

Oxford Bible for Teachers

Paper Printing Helps Illustrations

IN ADVANCE OF ALL OTHERS

"Since 1880 the 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible has been acknowledged the greatest book marvel of modern times. The publishers have just brought out an edition with revised helps which again puts this work clearly in advance of all others."

—Sunday-School Magazine.

The Paper

"The India paper, in which we believe this Company leads the world, has made a revolution in the art of printing."—The Living Church.

"A marvel of paper-making."—The London Times.

"The exquisite Oxford India Paper is a perfect miracle of manufacture. Though so thin the print never shows through, and yet the type is perfectly clear and legible."—The Spectator.

No other paper has yet been made that can approach it for its wonderful capacity, great toughness and softness, and its agreeable tone, nor for the ease with which THE PAGES CAN BE TURNED.

The Printing

"Its letterpress is remarkably clear and distinct. This is appreciated the more because IT IS UNCOMMON IN BIBLES. Long and close attention to the print of ordinary Bibles strains the strongest eyes, but the 'Oxford' is not an ordinary Bible in this or in any other respect."—The Christian Nation.

"The printing is worthy of the paper, and more than this it is impossible to say."—The Guardian.

The Helps

REV. F. N. PELOUBET, D.D., author of Peloubet's Notes on the International Lessons, says, Jan. 14, 1899:

"I have been comparing the two editions of the 'Oxford' Helps, your new one with mine dated 1893. Your appendix, and especially the new plates, and more especially the descriptions of them, which are a wholly new feature, add greatly to the value of these 'Helps.' I shall refer to them as often as I can in my Notes on the Lessons."

The Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn., says:

"The 'Helps' are real helps. Unlike those in many of the cheap Bibles, they are not simply thrown together in hodgepodge fashion, but represent the freshest and ablest work of the foremost modern scholars."

The Interior, Chicago, Ill., says:

"Helps" prepared for this work by the most eminent Biblical scholars of the day, and revised up to the latest possible date, to keep in touch with the last discoveries of science, the last lights of interpretation. This edition has reached, in former issues, a sale of over two million copies, and it is safe to say that nothing offers even fair competition with it in general favor."

The Toronto Globe says:

"The most instructive and exhaustive compendium of every kind of information essential to Bible study."

The Illustrations

The Sunday-School Times, Sept. 17, 1898, says, referring to the illustrations:

"In this department this Bible is probably far superior to any other of those commonly called Teachers' Bibles. Probably there does not exist another equally compact collection of the kind."

All Denominations concur in recommending the Oxford Bible for Teachers.

Upwards of 2,000,000 copies of former editions have been sold.
