

THE BARRACK HILL.—We are pleased to observe that the laying out of the grounds in front of the Parliament Buildings has been commenced, and that the work has been entrusted to the skillful care of Mr. Alpine Grant, one of the very few persons in the country who can fairly claim to be landscape gardeners. Under Mr. Grant's directions the grounds will, no doubt, be made very attractive, his skill and taste having been already well proven in the various improvements he has effected about Rideau Hall. We understand that the present board-walks to the Buildings will all be removed and winding graveled paths substituted, the main portion of the ground will be sodded and planted with trees and shrubs, and three fountains placed in prominent positions. That no delay will be made in prosecuting the work all who know Mr. Grant's love for his business will be ready to vouch.—Ottawa Citizen.
