JACQUES CARTIER AGRICULTURAL SHOW.

This came off in a field belonging to Mr. Dawes, at Lachine, on Wednesday last. The Society has now been in existence six years; and this was the best show of stock yet exhibited. It is almost impossible to draw particular attention to the best animals where all were so good, and as the prize list shows to whom the judges awarded an extra degree of merit. But we may mention that Mr. Thomas Hodge, of St. Laurent, had a fine three year old stallion, which deserved by the reports of the experts the first prize; but he was not allowed to compete, owing to a failure to comply with the regulations, by showing his horse at the last spring horse show, as usual, which is always required in order to be able to compete in the fall. A directly opposite decision was given in the case of Thomas Macready, of this city, who, though he had in this and every other respect complied with the regulations, was not allowed to show his stallion, "Black Prince," a six year old, sired by "Cœur de Léon," and which served about thirty mares this season in the county,—because it was said he would carry off the prize against all comers. How to reconcile this treatment with fair play we leave to the
