

The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin.
1 John i. 7.

THE FATAL GLASS.

There's danger in the glass. Beware lest it enslaves. They who have drained it find, alas! Too often early graves. It sparkles to allure. With its rich, ruby light; There is no antidote or cure. Only its course to fight. It changes men to brutes; Makes women bow their heads; Fills homes with anguish, want, disputes. And takes from children bread. Then dash the glass away,
And from the
serpent flee
Drink pure
cold water
day
by
day.
And
walk
God's footstool free!

GOLD DUST.

FELLOWSHIP with God produces, strengthens, and increases hatred to sin.

The glories of the world always lose their charms when Jesus is spiritually enjoyed.

There is more in one of God's sentences than you have discovered yet.

Never expect spiritual wealth while you are indulging spiritual sloth.

Study to be quiet, except when duty calls upon you to speak.

Always have a word with God before you enter into conversation with men.

The greater your privileges, the greater your debt.

"GOING THE WRONG WAY."

YOU are going the wrong way," said the guard of a train on the railroad to a passenger on receiving his ticket. That assertion fell very unpleasantly upon the ear of him who had made the mistake. Still it was not a very serious one. It could be corrected. He was advised to get out at the first stopping place, and to take the opposite train on its arrival.

GOING THE WRONG WAY. In another sense this is affectingly true of thousands. It is true of the child who goes not in the way of its parent's commands.
It is true of the man who with hot haste is in pursuit of the riches, or honours, or pleasures of earth. It is true of every one whose course has not been changed, who is not running the Christian race. Says the Saviour, "Enter ye in at the straight gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat; because strait is the gate and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

Oh, how many are now hurrying on toward eternal death, while they vainly are hoping to reach the end of their course, the New Jerusalem above!
THEY ARE GOING THE WRONG WAY.
The language of God to them is, "Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways, for why will ye die?" TURN TO-DAY. Soon it will be TOO LATE.

MISERY BY THE GALLON.—
At a temperance meeting an old colored man said,
"When I see a man going home wid a gallon o' whiskey and half a pound of meat, dat's temperance lecture 'nuff fo' me. I knows dat eberyting in his house is on de same scale—a gallon ob misery to every half pound of comfort."
