

Esq., P. L. S., of Toronto, to Francis A., youngest daughter of Martin Carmen, Esq., of this city.

On the 4th inst., at Grace Church, by the Rev. S. Tremaine, Henry Watson, Esq., to Jane Elizabeth, eldest daughter of John Holgate, Esq., all of Milton.

On Tuesday, the 9th inst., at St. Paul's Church, Toronto, by the Rev. S. Givins, Henry Palfad, Esq., to Miss Hannah Elizabeth Wilson, both of Niagara.

At St. Peter's Church, West Essa, on the 7th of May, by the Rev. A. J. Fidler, B. A., Mr. Robert Asaph, to Mrs. Eliza Campbell, both of West Essa.

On the 16th June, at the Cathedral, Kingston, by the Rev. F. W. Dobbs, assisted by the Rev. T. T. Roberts, M.A., and the Rev. P. W. Loosmore, M.A., John Macnab, Esq., of Toronto, to Elizabeth Smith, fourth daughter of the late W. Wilson, Esq., of Newcourt, Kingston.

DIED.

In Kingston, on the 15th inst., Thomas Askew, Esq., aged 75 years.

On the 1st inst., at his residence, Lundy's Lane, aged 77 years, the Rev. Wm. Leeming, Rector of Chippewa. Mr. Leeming has laboured faithfully in the Niagara District since 1820, and died lamented by all who knew him, as a man without guile, and without hypocrisy, the friend of the poor and destitute, and the enemy of none.

THE REV. WILLIAM LEEMING, RECTOR OF CHIPPEWA.

The church in this diocese has very recently been called by an All-wise Providence to mourn the loss of an eminent servant of Christ, at the advanced age of 77 years. He died as he lived, in peace and in the divine favour—his last words in surrendering his soul into the hands of a faithful Creator and most merciful Saviour, were the third petition of the Lords prayer, "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven." Mr. Leeming was sent out to Canada as one of their missionaries, in 1820, by the "venerable Society of Propagation of the Gospel in foreign parts," on the earnest invitation of the people of Chippewa, made by a committee through the Bishop of Quebec, composed of the late Hon. T. Clark, Samuel Street, James Cummings, and J. Macklem, Esqs;—and was kindly received into the family of Mr. Street, in which until he fixed his residence in Lundy's Lane, from which he went out and preached the gospel, and administered the ordinances of our holy religion at stated times and in divers places, particularly Chippewa, Fort Erie, St. Catharines, Thorold and Stamford, until other missionaries arrived, when his labours were chiefly employed in Chippewa and Thorold, and in adjacent parts. This faithful servant of the Lord has thus closed a long and useful life by a holy and happy death. Blessed with a sound and vigorous constitution, and a great degree of bodily activity, he was enabled to the last to attend to the calls of his laborious profession with diligence and regularity. After the Whit-Sunday services, he met his class of candidates for confirmation at the church on the Wednesday, and walked that day to and from the church for the purpose. Only one Sunday, the Sunday following, and immediately preceding his departure, was he absent from his public ministrations. He has ever evinced the greatest tenderness, benevolence and compassion towards all, and he united this humane discharge of his duties to his fellow-men, with a most religious observance of the duties which he owed to God.

Implicitly acknowledging the truth of christianity in general, he was devotedly attached to that church of which he was a member, regarding her articles, as a form of sound doctrine, her ministry as the appointment of God, her worship as the purest and most acceptable sacrifice which could be rendered unto Him.

His belief was not merely of a speculative kind, but a practical and efficient principle, influencing his heart, governing his conduct, regulating his intercourse with mankind, and abounding in "the peaceable fruits of righteousness." Abundantly replenished with the truth of heavenly doctrine, and adorned with innocence of life, both by word and good example, our beloved brother in the Lord served his Divine Master faithfully in his office, to the glory of his name, and the edification of his church, and now "rests from his labours, and his works do follow him." "Peace to the memory of departed worth."

"Communicated."