

FOUR NOTABLE BOOKS

THE BETTER WAY

By Charles Wagner
Cloth. $1.00, Postpaid

Seldom indeed is it that a book with a lesson to teach parallels the success of popular fiction; yet "The Simple Life" has been constantly on the "best selling" lists since its publication. This is the book of which President Roosevelt repeatedly said in public speeches that he wished it could be used as a tract throughout the land.

We have now ready another book by Charles Wagner, the rugged, simple, high-thinking Alsatian who wrote "The Simple Life." The new book is called "The Better Way." It has all the purity and beauty of thought and style that characterize "The Simple Life," and its plea is for higher standards of character.

THE STORY OF MY LIFE

By Helen Keller

Not for many years has so unusual and striking a book been published. All the world knows of this young woman, who lost sight, hearing and speech in early childhood. The story of her life, written by herself, and telling, as it does, step by step, her advance in speaking, reading by the lips, writing, and in brief, the achievement of a varied and complete education, is unparalleled in the annals of education. It is one of those rare volumes which one can prophesy a long life for with certainty, and it is interesting to note how generally this is pointed out by the critics. The book is carefully and fully illustrated.

THE GOSPEL OF THE HOME

Pastor of Deer Park Presbyterian Church, Toronto.

With introduction by Principal Burwash, of Victoria University.

Cloth, 75c. Net, Postpaid

Rev. Dr. John F. German, in writing of "The Gospel of the Home," says: "I have read the work with very great interest. The whole book is packed full of helpful truths, tersely presented. It will be a benediction to any home in which it is read, and the golden truths in the chapters concerning the son and the daughter will abundantly repay young people who give them a careful study. I trust it may have, as it richly deserves, a wide circulation."
