Dear Star.

My dear old friend I am quite sorry to see that you have got into a little trouble but I dont suppose they can hurt you much you need not be afraid get a good advocate he will make you all right, if you want any money you can draw on me for any amount, my friend John McNaughton will make it all right. I am getting on very well with my Temperance society, I expect Mr. McNaughton herenext week.

Your old friend.

Isaac Bergeron.

Jeremiah Bedard having purchased a farm at Cap Rouge, he intends starting a large hotel about the 1st of June this year, he hopes all his friends from town will patronize him, he would also wish to inform all cullers going out to measure rafts, that he will be happy to attend to all their wants, on one condition that is, said cullers must pay for meals in advance, and all grog cash down, as I cannot be running after my money.

Jeremiah Bedard.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

There is a certain walking news paper in the cove, he is a watchman on a boat, he does nothing all winter but run down his neighbours, and particularly all young men that is not sparing his daughters, he is chiefly to be seen at a widows house in Sillery cove where he goes for the purpose of cackling, he is mean, despicable little whelp, if he does not stop his gab, he will hear something that he wont like, and his name will be exposed.

I hear that Stephen L. is going to the Centennial at Philadelphia, he is appointed by the Dominion Government to look after the lumber sent there for exhibition, he leaves on the 5th. may, Tommoy Dodd and staff will escort him as far as Point Levi.

Distinguished arrivals in the Coves, from Ontario and the States Mr. Tom C. Mr. Jim McCrossing, Mr. Pelton Vielneuve, Mr. Peter Giroux, Mr. Mic Beford, and Hon. Tom Brown.

Ben L. is going to lecture next week in Sharples shed Sillery on the demi-semi-sentennial celebration of the settlement of Sillery Cove.—Tickets 25 cent each.

Imports per Northern and Grand Trunk Railway, one large box containing one shipping culler consigned to Messrs. Connell and Munroe, New London Cove this is a new way of sending cullers down.
