truly said of her, in the language of Whittier, that

"All hearts grow warmer in the presence Of one who seeking not her own, Gives freely for the love of giving, Nor reaps for self the harvest sown."

The following is a recent example of our distinguished country-woman's love of her native land, and kind-hearted generosity to the needy. Miss van Felson, well known in the society circles of Quebec—a niece of Sister St. George, of the Ursuline Convent, and grand-daughter of the late Hon. Judge van Felson,—has been visiting friends in New York for some months past.
Father Tetreau (also a Canadian) requested her to aid him in organizing a concert for the purpose of raising funds to build a school-house for the children of poor Canadians residing in that city. Miss van Felson enlisted the sympathies of Mme. Albani, who willingly sang at the concert, stipulating as the only condition that a certain number of seats should be free to poor Canadians who could not afford to pay for them. The tickets of admission were from 50 cents to two dollars each. The concert proved a great success, and realized for the good object in view over two thousand dollars.
