

ment for the high duties that had devolved upon her.

After the departure of the Archbishop the first act of the new Sovereign was to write an affectionate letter of condolence to her widowed aunt; and forgetting in the sympathizing emotions of her warm heart, her newly acquired dignity, she directed it to "Her Majesty the Queen."

On placing her letter in the hands of one of the household officers, it was respectfully represented to Her Majesty, that the Queen of yesterday was the Dowager of to-day, and that it would be more accordant with etiquette were the letter so addressed.

For one moment Her Majesty considered of the proffered advice; but the next, the native delicacy of her mind predominated. "I will not," said she, with a mild firmness of the brightest promise, "be the first to announce that change; I wish you to transmit it as it is."

REVERENCE FOR THE LORD'S DAY.

The following interesting incident, which occurred at the beginning of her reign, was a striking evidence of Her Majesty's reverence for the duties of the Sabbath.

"One of Her Majesty's Ministers arrived at Windsor late on Saturday night, and informed his youthful Sovereign that he had brought some papers of importance for her inspection; 'but as they must be gone into at length,' he added, 'I will not trouble your Majesty with them to-night, but request your attention to them to-morrow morning.' 'To-morrow morning!' repeated the Queen, 'to-morrow is Sunday, my Lord.' 'But business of State, please your Majesty,' 'Must be attended to, I know,' replied the Queen, 'and as, of course, you could not come down earlier to-night, I will, if these papers are of such vital importance, attend to them after we come from church to-morrow morning.' 'To church went the Royal party, and also the noble statesman, and, much to his edification we hope, the sermon was on the duties of the Sabbath.' 'How did your Lordship like the sermon?' asked the young Queen. 'Very much, your Majesty,' replied he, with the best grace he could assume. 'I will not conceal from you,' said the Queen, 'that last night I sent the clergyman the text from which he preached. I hope we shall be the better for it.' 'The day passed without a single word on the subject of the papers, and at night, when the Queen was about to withdraw, she said:—' 'To-morrow morning, my Lord, at any hour you please—as early as seven if you like—we will go into these papers.' 'His Lordship could not think of intruding at so early an hour on Her Majesty; 'Nine would be quite time enough,' he said. 'As they are of importance, my Lord,' observed the Queen, 'I would have attended to them earlier, but at nine be it.' 'At nine, Her Majesty punctually gave audience to the Minister, who had never before, it is to be presumed, received so salutary a lesson on the duties of the Sabbath.'

MERCY.

The first sentence of death the young Sovereign was required to sign, was that of a soldier condemned to death for desertion. The Queen read it, and asked the Minister who brought it to her, "Have you nothing to say in behalf of this man?" "Nothing, was the reply; 'he has deserted three times; but,' said the brave veteran who relates the anecdote, seeing Her Majesty's anxiety, I added, 'though he is a very bad soldier some witnesses spoke for his character, and, for ought I know to the contrary, he may be a good man.' " "Oh! thank you for that a thousand times," exclaimed the Queen; and hastily writing "pardoned" on the paper, she put it across the table, with her fair hand trembling with emotion.

ALTHOUGH this Society has mainly in view the intention of enabling members of the Church of England to contribute, by the payment of small periodical sums, towards either the endowment of a Church of England University, (in accordance with the recommendation of His Lordship the Bishop in his recent Pastoral Letter,) or the building and endowment of Churches, Parsonage Houses, and School Houses, in connexion with the Church of England—the Society, nevertheless does not contemplate restricting its operations to those objects only. On the contrary, like other Building Societies, the advantages of the Church of England and Metropolitan Building Society will be fully open to all parties, without distinction, who may choose to take Stock therein, either for investment—the acquisition of freehold or leasehold estate—the removal of incumbrances or liabilities upon property—or the privilege of borrowing the amount of their shares in advance, upon furnishing approved mortgage security.
Printed copies of the By-Laws and Regulations can be obtained from the undersigned, at the Offices of the Society, Albany Chambers; and it is requested that all Communications be post paid.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL
For the Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION
The annals of medical science, affording as they do ample proof of the power and value of many medicinal agents, have furnished no examples to compare with the salutary effects produced by "AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."
DR. PERKINS, President Vermont Medical College, one of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, considers it a "composition of rare excellence for the cure of that formidable disease, Consumption."
Norwich, April 26, 1846
Dr. J. C. Ayer—Dear Sir:—Agreeable to the request of your agent, we will cheerfully state what we have known of the effects of your CHERRY PECTORAL and they have been astonishing indeed. Mrs. Betsey Streeter had been afflicted with a severe and relentless cough, which reduced her very low; so low that little hopes could be entertained of her recovery. Numerous remedies had been tried without effect, before the CHERRY PECTORAL. And that has cured her. George Watkinson Esq., had to our knowledge been afflicted with Asthma, for eleven years, and grown yearly worse, until the CHERRY PECTORAL has now removed the disease and he is as free from any of its symptoms as we are. The Rev. Mark Dane had been so severely attacked with the Bronchitis, as to disable him from the duties and nothing had afforded him relief until I (Mr. Thoring) carried him a bottle of your PECTORAL, which cured him at once, and he now officiates as usual in his place.
These are three of the cases in which we have known it successful, but never to fail. We have great pleasure in certifying to these facts; and are, respected sir, your humble servants,
REV. DAVID THORNING,
HON. JOSEPH BATTLES.
Among the distinguished authorities who have given their names to recommend CHERRY PECTORAL, as the best remedy that is known for the Affections of the Lungs are: "The London Lancet," "Canadian Journal of Medical Science," Boston Medical and Surgical Journal," "Charleston (S. C.) Medical Review," "New Jersey Medical Reporter," Prof. Bartlett, Transylvania University of Medicine, President Perkins Vermont Medical College, Dr. Valentine Mott, New York City Parker Cleveland, Bowdoin College, Prof. Butterfield, Willoughby College, Ohio, Prof. Braithwaite, Leeds (Eng.) Medical School, Sir Richard Keate, Queen's College, Ireland, Prof. Rosenbaum, Leipsic.
The public have but to know the virtues and astonishing success of the "CHERRY PECTORAL," in curing diseases of the Lungs, when they will feel secure from these dangers whenever this remedy can be obtained.
PREPARED BY J. C. AYER, CHEMIST, LOWEL, MASS.
Sold by Lyman & Kneeshaw, Toronto; Hamilton and Kneeshaw, Hamilton; Wm. Lyman & Co., Montreal, Agents for the Canada.
