VOL. XXXV.

TORONTO, NOVEMBER 15, 1890.

No. 20.
Whole No. 910.

J.W. Bragou

THE UNSOPHISTICATED CLERGYMAN.

REV. DR. GRANT—"It has occurred to me that we should now declare for Free Trade with Great Britain, which would not only be a good thing for the Canadian consumer, but a practical demonstration of our love and loyalty toward the great Empire of which—"

PROTECTED PATRIOT—"Ah, to be sure—exactly—quite so. But that's not the sort of loyalty I go in for, don't you know!"
