

CAPITAL AND LABOUR.

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour.

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or capital.

THE VICE-REGAL VISIT.

Arrival of their Excellencies the Earl and Countess of Dufferin. THEIR ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION BY MONTREAL'S THOUSANDS. THE ADDRESS OF MAYOR BEAUDRY AND LORD DUFFERIN'S REPLY.

The guard of honour consisted of one hundred rank and file of the Montreal Garrison Artillery, under Captains Currie and Forbes, and Lieut. Turnbull, and these, accompanied by the drum corps of the regiment, were drawn up in line on the platform just outside the depot. Lieut. Colonel Bacon, in the absence of Lieut. Col. Fletcher, was present to receive the Governor General, and his staff consisted of Lieut. Col. Fraser, Major Fletcher, and Captain Molson, all of the Montreal Field Battery. This was the first appearance of the Artillery in their new uniform and they presented a very fine appearance.

The Mayor and Council met in the waiting room shortly before six o'clock. His Worship Mayor Beaudry was present, wearing the gold insignia of office, and attended by Recorder Sexton and the City Clerk, Mr. Charles Glackmeyer, while the Aldermen present were H. A. Nelson, T. D. Hood, J. Grenier, W. Clendinning, Geo. Childs, N. Mercer, E. K. Greene, M. Laurent, D. Mc Cord, A. McCambridge, P. Kennedy, P. Donovan, C. Thibeault, E. Chausse, O. Robert, A. Laberge, Robert Taylor, R. Holland, J. C. McLaren, E. A. Genereaux, H. Gauthier, J. E. Mullin, T. Wilson, J. Dubamel and L. McLancon, while there were also present Sir Francis Hincks, Joseph Hickson, C. J. Brydges, A. W. Ogilvie, Col. Stevenson, Andrew Robertson, M. H. Gault, W. J. Spicer and others. The train arrived at six o'clock precisely, and His Excellency was received with a general salute and most enthusiastic cheers. The following address of welcome was read by Mayor Beaudry:—

We, the Mayor and Aldermen of the City Montreal, beg leave respectfully to approach Your Excellency, and in the name of the citizens whom we represent, to return you our sincere thanks for the kind and gracious manner in which Your Excellency has been pleased to accept the invitations of the citizens of Montreal to honour the City with a visit. We remember with grateful satisfaction the visits previously made by Your Excellency and your accomplished lady to this city, which resulted in feelings of personal respect and endearing attachment to you both, and it is with the greatest pleasure that we once more hail your presence in our midst. We are fully sensible of the deep interest which your Excellency has ever manifested in all that tends to promote the welfare and happiness of the inhabitants of the Dominion of Canada, and we fervently hope your Excellency may long continue to preside over our destinies.

The intimate knowledge of the resources of Canada and the state of feeling of all classes of its inhabitants which your Excellency has acquired from your long residence in this country, and from your visits to so many parts of the Dominion, even to the remotest sections of it, must necessarily be of essential service to the Canadian people, as it enables your Excellency to give to Her Majesty's Government at home information and assurances which must be productive of the most advantageous results to these Provinces.

We beg your Excellency to convey to Lady Dufferin the expression of our best wishes for her health and happiness. We earnestly hope that your visit to Montreal may prove a pleasant and agreeable one; and on behalf of its inhabitants we pledge ourselves to use every exertion in our power to render it to you.

Montreal, February 11, 1878. J. L. BEAUDRY, Mayor.

CHAS. GLACKMEYER, City Clerk.

Mayor Beaudry was then presented to Lady Dufferin, and welcomed to Her Excellency in brief terms begging her acceptance of a bouquet of choice flowers which she graciously received.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY. Lord Dufferin replied as follows:— I beg to thank you most sincerely on behalf of Lady Dufferin and myself, not only for the very splendid reception you have accorded us, but also for the heartiness and sincerity of your welcome. I assure you that it is with feelings of the greatest pleasure that I find myself the honored guest of your noble and flourishing city.

The kind thought which prompted you and your fellow-citizens to extend to mean invitation to the city of Montreal, conceived as it was in a most friendly spirit, acted on with the utmost cordiality, and carried out with so much good will, forethought and liberality, cannot but result in my present visit to the mercantile metropolis of Canada, proving one of the pleasantest features of my varied experience in this great Dominion. I can assure you, gentlemen, that wherever I may be I shall always continue to take the greatest interest in all that concerns the well being of Canada, and shall be happy to advance to the utmost of my power the welfare and prosperity of her people.

In conclusion, I would thank you most heartily for the kind and complimentary remarks contained in your address, which are personal to Lady Dufferin and myself. Mayor Beaudry, then introduced all the members of the Council, Recorder Sexton and the City Clerk, and this done, conducted Her Excellency to Lis carriage, Mr. C. J. Brydges following with the Hon. Mr. Littleton, and in a few minutes all were en route for the Windsor Hotel, the route thereto being thronged with people, who were uncasing in their demonstrations of delight. Having arrived at the Windsor, His Excellency was received with the general salute, and shortly afterwards was comfortably installed in the grand parlors, where he was received by the citizens' executive committee—the Mayor, Sir F. Hincks, Wm. H. Hingston, Esq., C. J. Brydges, Esq., M. H. Gault, Esq., J. Doutra, Esq., Q. C. Andrew Robertson, Esq., Alderman Nelson, E. Holton, and a number of others, among whom were R. L. Gault, Thomas Workman, M. P., Lieut. Colonel Lyde, Fred Mackenzie, Colonel Frank Bond, Colonel Handyside, Senator Ryan, M. P., Ryan, Ewan McLennan, Col. A. A. Stevenson, Alex. McGibbon, Mr. Worthington and others. We here append the following list of

THE VICE-REGAL PARTY. Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Countess of Dufferin. Lieut. Colonel the Hon. E. G. P. Littleton, and Hon. Mrs. Littleton. Miss Hamilton. Mr. Webb, C. Hayes. Mr. Albert Bierstadt. Captain Price, Blackwood, R. A. Major G. B. Hamilton. Capt. Fredk. Ward, A.D.C. F. B. Hamilton, Esq., A.D.C. S. E. A. Harvey, Esq., A.D.C.

INTERCHANGE OF COURTESIES having been concluded between the committee and His Excellency, the latter, in reply to a few words from Mayor Beaudry, said:—I can only say that I am quite over-powered by the kind reception which you have prepared for me. I know well that wherever I have gone in Canada, the Queen's representative has been always welcome, but there are circumstances attending the welcome you have given me quite exceptional in my experience. My only fear is that, having been once accustomed to the luxuriance and pleasures of this place, I shall, on my return to Ottawa, scarcely find the humble rooms of the Government House able to contain me. (Laughter, and hear, hear.) This closed the formal ceremonies of the day, and the grand parlors were soon left to the vice-regal party and their friends.—Gazette.

THE POPE. BROOKVILLE, SUNDAY 10TH.—The Roman Catholic Church here was draped in mourning to-day for the Pope, and will remain so for the space of eight days. Father McCarthy, spoke twice: in the morning, on the Pope, which was a most excellent discourse, and in the evening, on Purgatory, which was of equal merit and impressiveness. The Requiem and Libera were chanted in the evening. The effect of the beautiful catafalque, arranged in the Sanctuary, was very fine. On Monday at 9 a.m. there was solemn High Mass; and other services will follow during the week. The bell tolled from 6 to 9, on the evening of the Pope's death, and will continue to do so, three times a day for 15 minutes, the entire week. There is universal sadness, but a fervent prayer, that God will truly rest the soul of the great man, (which seems almost out of place, in his regard),—and speedily accord him the merit his certainly great life deserves. Peace to his ashes!—Peace to his ashes!

CITY ITEMS. SONS OF ENN.—On Saturday evening the members met for the election of officers. The following was the result:—President, M. A. Kiely; Vice-President, John O'Leary; Secretary, T. Weiner; Asst. Secretary, M. Ryan; Treasurer, J. Patton. Council:—M. Creigan, J. Tolan, M. Phillips, and J. Breslin. The Society is in a flourishing condition. EXECUTIVE OF THE IRISH CATHOLIC UNION.—The undermentioned gentlemen were elected officers of the Catholic Union, at a meeting of the Executive held on the 8th Feb. Grand President, Mr. J. E. McEvenue, 1st Vice R. P. Brooke, 2nd Vice L. Quinlan, Rec. Secretary J. P. Quinn, Cor. Sec. Secretary, J. P. Marshall, Treasurer, D. Harvey, Asst. Sec'y. P. D. O'Neil, Marshal, Ed. Coyle.

EMMET CENTENARY.—The Young Irishmen's Literary and Benefit Association, Montreal, will celebrate the Centenary of the Birth of Robert Emmet on the 4th March next by a dramatic entertainment in the Theatre Royal. The dramatic Company of the Association will play the Historical Drama of Robert Emmet in Three Acts. We wish the Association success. Advertisement will appear in our next issue.

CONCERT.—A concert was given at the Emerald Hall, Point St. Charles, on Monday the 4th inst., by No. 14 Branch of the Catholic Union which was numerously attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Addresses were delivered by the Branch President—Mr. J. T. Marshall, and by Messrs. Curtin, Clarke, Reynolds, Quinlan, and Lennox, Father Salmon's Brass Band was in attendance and Professor Wilson presided at the piano. The concert proved a success from a pecuniary as well as a literary point of view and the singing, dances, and speeches were all that could be desired.

ST. BRIGGS'S T. A. AND B. SOCIETY.—At a special general meeting of the St. Bridget's T. A. and B. Society, the following gentlemen were elected to office for the ensuing year:—1st Vice-President, Mr. Thos. H. Fernan, re-elected; 2nd Vice-President, Mr. M. Kelly, re-elected; Rec.-Secretary, Mr. P. McGee, re-elected; Asst. Secretary, Mr. W. J. Kelly, re-elected; Cor.-Secretary, Mr. C. McGee, re-elected; Treasurer, Mr. P. Tansey; Collecting Treasurer, Mr. S. Cocker; Asst. Col.-Treasurer, Mr. James Corcoran; Librarian, Mr. O. Ward, M.D.; Grand Marshal, Mr. J. O'Brien; Asst. Marshal, Mr. P. Doyle; 2nd Asst.-Marshal; Mr. T. O'Connor.

APPOINTMENT.—We learn from the Quebec Mercury that one of our most enterprising countrymen, Mr. F. B. McNamee, has been appointed one of the Council of Arts and Manufactures by the Hon. Mr. deBoucherville. This is the first one of our people who has been placed on this Board, and when we see a body comprising some seventeen gentlemen without a single Irish Catholic on it—until now—we may well enquire what are our representatives in the local house here doing. We are pleased at seeing Mr. deBoucherville performing the tardy act of grace, and congratulate Mr. McNamee on the appointment which we have no doubt he will fill with credit and ability.

A SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS was chanted in St. Bridget's Church, on the 5th inst., for the repose of the soul of the late Rev. J. O. Pars, Canon, Secretary to the Archbishop of Marisapolis, which office he filled for nearly forty years. Rev. Canon Leblanc officiated, assisted by Rev. M. Lavalle, cure of St. Vincent de Paul, as deacon, and Rev. M. Dugas, cure of Huchelaga, as sub-deacon. The panegyric was preached by Father Lonergan in most eloquent and affecting language; he dwelt at some length on the life and virtues of Mgr. Bourget's faithful Secretary, drawing tears from the pious audience which had thronged the Church from an early hour to offer up a prayer for the repose of him whose virtues were unknown to the world, but performed in retirement, and so not only by "The Father who seeth in secret," but who gives the reward. There were present Rev. Father Giband, S. S., Rev. P. Bourinjal, O. M. I., Rev. P. Giroux, with several other members of the clergy of the city. The singing, which was excellent, was conducted by Mr. J. Sheridan, the able director of the Cathedral choir, assisted by Drs. Trudel, Tremblay and the choir of St. Bridget's.

ST. PATRICK'S TOTAL ABSTINENCE AND BENEFIT SOCIETY.—The Annual meeting of the St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benefit Society. Rev. M. Reilly President in the chair. The proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. President; after which the Secretary read the annual report which was adopted. The collection of annual dues then took place after which the election of office bearers for the current year with the following result:—Rev. M. Reilly, President and Director; Samuel Cross, 1st Vice-President; A. Brogan, 2nd Vice-President; James Dillon, Treasurer; Francis Conaughton, Secretary. Executive Committee.—Ed. Murphy, (chairman), B. Emerson, James Conaughton, M. O'Connell, D. Murney, W. Donnelly, John McInerney, Michael Sharkey, Patrick Meagher, Hugh O'Neill, John State, Chas. Moffatt. Vigilance Committee.—Patrick McKeown, Chas. Nolan, John Pigeon, John Walsh, Daniel Mullin, John Clarke, Alex. Lavery, John Kelly, Gregory Hamilton—John Killowan, Grand Marshal; Thos. Daly, Asst. Marshal. A resolution of condolence was unanimously passed to the respected and esteemed Treasurer, Mr. James Dillon, in his sad bereavement in the death of his wife.

EMERALD SNOWBIRD STEEPLE-CHASE.—The fourth annual steeple-chase of the above club was run last evening at 8.30 from McGill College across the mountain to the Club room. The night was all that could be wished for and the snow in good condition. The following is a list of the competitors and the starts:—F. Farmer and Jos. Boyle, scratch; McGuire and Newman, one minute; P. A. McKenna, two minutes; P. J. McElroy, M. Polan, and B. McNally, three minutes; J. B. O'Neil, J. Jobin, and J. Mooney, four minutes. At the Pines P. A. McKenna, who was second, took a stitch, which threw him behind. J. Newman passed J. Boyle a yard or so before the winning post, doing the distance in 19m. 50sec, then followed T. Farmer, 20m, 20 sec, and

M. Polan, 20m 45sec. A large crowd followed the winners to the hotel; and about 100 sat down to supper, after which the prizes were distributed—the first, a gold medal, was presented by the President, Mr. C. Boyle, to Mr. J. Newman, the second a silver medal by Mr. Gerken, to Mr. J. Boyle, the third, a silver cup, by Mr. W. H. O'Hara to Mr. J. Freeman, and the fourth a cup by Mr. P. C. Warren, to Mr. M. Polan, all of which were given with very pleasing addresses. Another prize was offered, but the winner was not forthcoming. After the supper and the prizes had been distributed, various members of the Club and others favoured the company with songs and impromptu dances until 11.30, when the audience and performers left, some in sleighs and some on foot to their respective destination, the band of Capt. Kiwan's Company being in attendance there and back.—Gazette.

CANADIAN ITEMS. FOR TRADING AT WINNIPEG.—In the late autumn, as soon as the rivers are locked with ice and the ground is covered with snow, the furs begin to come in at Winnipeg. As they are brought in by the Indians they are traded by the persons in charge of the trading-store. If an Indian were to bring in a hundred skins of different sorts, or all alike, he would trade off every skin separately, and insist on payment for each skin as he sold it. He likes the linked sweetness of shopping long drawn out; hence it often occupies several days to barter a batch of furs. It is a curious and interesting sight to watch an Indian, as he disposes of skin after skin, selecting from the stores' articles that he may require. If he has only a small quantity of skins, he walks into the shop with his blanket about him and not a skin visible. After some preliminary skirmishing, he produces one skin from under his blanket, trades it, taking in exchange what he absolutely needs; then he stops. Just as one thinks the trading is over, he produces another skin from beneath his blanket, and buys something else. Thus he goes on until, having bought all the necessaries he requires, he branches off into the purchase of luxuries—candy, fancy neckties, &c. Under so slow a process an Indian trader needs to possess more than average patience. The skins, as fast as purchased, are thrown behind the counter, and then carried to the fur-room and piled in heaps that are constantly turned and aired.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected coconos, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
