

Do You Believe in the Power of Love to Overcome All Obstacles?

“ALL the World Loves a Lover,” we have been told. The statement can never be more emphatically true than when applied to Jeffery Farnol’s irresistible romance—“My Lady Caprice.”

Dick Brent, in love with Lisbeth, is inveigled by Aunt Agatha into giving the girl a six months’ respite. Aunt Agatha exiles her to Fane Court in hope of wedding her to Horace Selwyn, a wealthier man. Dick follows, meets Lisbeth and wins the goodwill of her small nephew, The Imp.

There are intrigues and counter-intrigues, and you will find yourself always a party to them—helping, as it were, to make things easier for Cupid. The Imp is exasperating, but you’ll love him. Lisbeth is charming. You will not be able to resist her wiles. Neither can Dick, whom you will be glad to support throughout all the highways and byways of his persistence.

“My Lady Caprice” is a captivating, gripping story that will hold your interest from start to finish. This is the first time any Canadian magazine has published a story by Jeffery Farnol. It is fitting that EVERYWOMAN’S WORLD should secure the first. There is hardly a reader who is not familiar with his other stories: “The Broad Highway,” “The Amateur Gentleman,” “The Definite Object” and “Beltane the Smith.” They all took the literary world by storm. “My Lady Caprice” is a breezy, chatty novel that you will like even better. It affords entertainment, relaxation and excitement.

“MY LADY CAPRICE”

By JEFFERY FARNOL

“My Lady Caprice” will run as a serial for seven months in EVERYWOMAN’S WORLD, beginning with the May issue.

We believe our readers will appreciate a book-length novel concluded in seven instalments. It affords us the opportunity to give you practically two novels a year, in addition to the many other stories and live articles that we present every month.

Mr. T. V. McCarthy, who illustrated “The Hidden Hope” in the March number and “The Intruder” in this issue, will handle the art work for “My Lady Caprice.” This insures two-fold satisfaction for you.

Do not miss the opening instalment of “My Lady Caprice” in the May issue. When you have read that, you cannot resist each succeeding instalment. Make sure of your copies now. If your subscription has nearly expired, send us your renewal immediately. If it has a few more months yet to run, do not trust to your memory—you may forget when the time comes and miss thereby a part of the greatest serial in years. Write us to-day. We will credit your account with a new subscription starting the month after your expiry, no matter how far ahead that may be. Fill in the coupon on this page with your name and address. Mail it to-day while you think of it!
