

and the Canadian Government. The latter must be advised by the Department of External Affairs of the Department of External Affairs of the Government of Canada. The Department of External Affairs of the Government of Canada is the primary contact point for all matters relating to the entry of foreign citizens into Canada. The Department of External Affairs of the Government of Canada is the primary contact point for all matters relating to the entry of foreign citizens into Canada. The Department of External Affairs of the Government of Canada is the primary contact point for all matters relating to the entry of foreign citizens into Canada.

The Canadian authorities must recognize conventions already between the two countries will not constitute a criminal record in Canada provided to the general public and.

Canada currently has trade agreements in effect with Belgium, France, Mexico, Peru, Thailand and the United States. Furthermore, through a multilateral convention concluded under the aegis of the Council of Europe, registers may be undertaken with Austria, Cyprus, Denmark, Finland, France, Greece, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom and some of its colonies, and the United States.

Afterword

As a relative or friend of a Canadian immigrant abroad you may find that you are called upon to carry a considerable emotional and financial burden over an extended period. Departmental officials with experience in dealing with the problems of unimmigrated Canadians understand how difficult this situation can be and can provide helpful advice.

It is hoped that this handbook will answer most of your questions. Should you require additional information, please contact: