

ARTICLE 2

1. The Parties shall consider the following citizens of either country as eligible to benefit from the application of this Agreement:

- (a) Young citizens, including post-secondary graduates, who intend to obtain further training in the host country under a pre-arranged contract of employment in support of their career development;
- (b) Registered students of a post-secondary institution in their home country who intend to complete part of their academic curriculum in the host country by undertaking a pre-arranged internship or work placement, including in the context of an arrangement between post-secondary institutions;
- (c) Young citizens, including registered students, who intend to travel in the host country and who intend to obtain remunerated employment in order to supplement their financial resources.

ARTICLE 3

1. The Parties shall consider as qualified to benefit from the application of this Agreement, young citizens of either country who fall under one of the categories referred to in Article 2 and who submit an individual application to the other country's diplomatic mission or consular post responsible for the territory of the country of which they are citizens or in which they have been lawfully admitted, provided that they fulfill the following conditions:

- (a) Meet all requirements of Estonian and Canadian immigration legislation and regulations, including admissibility, to the extent not already set out in sub-paragraphs (b) to (h) below;
- (b) Be between the ages of 18 and 35 inclusively on the date the application is received by the mission or consular post;
- (c) Be an Estonian or Canadian citizen and hold a valid Estonian or Canadian passport, and be in possession of a departure ticket or sufficient financial resources to purchase such ticket;
- (d) Not be accompanied by dependents;
