

The duties of Mrs. F. C. Davidson involve the making of actuarial calculations under individual contracts with respect to new or changing contracts, assisting in year-end valuation, the preparation of annual reports, financial statements and carrying on statistical and mortality investigations; assisting with actuarial calculations involving the cost of both past and future service respecting proposed retirement annuity plans for employees; assisting with the annual valuations of retirement annuity plans in force; actuarial calculations concerning withdrawals, deaths and retirements under group contracts.

3. Qualifications: Mr. C. D. Allen. (1) Graduation from Dalhousie university (B.A.) in mathematics and economics, (2) Passed three examinations of Actuarial Society of America, (3) Passed civil service grade four examination for university graduates, (4) First on eligible list, civil service competition for actuarial assistants (1943), (5) Five years experience in Annuities branch.

Qualifications: Mrs. F. C. Davidson. (1) Graduate of university of Manitoba (B.A.), specialization in Actuarial Science and Economics, (2) Three years experience in a division of the Actuarial department of the Great West Life Assurance Company, Winnipeg, (3) Passed three Life Underwriter examinations, 1940, (4) Three years experience with the government Annuities branch, (5) Placed on civil service grade 4 list, 1942, (6) Second in civil service competition for actuarial assistants, 1943.

4. Salary: Mr. C. D. Allen, $1,440 per year. War Duty Supplement, $120 per year. Cost of living bonus, $221.94 per year.

Salary: Mrs. F. C. Davidson, $1,320 per year. War Duty Supplement, $240 per year. Cost of living bonus, $221.04 per year.

E. P. TAYLOR

Mr. NICHOLSON:

1. What positions have been occupied by Mr. E. P. Taylor with the British, American and Canadian governments since the outbreak of war?

2. What are his present duties?

Mr. CHEVRIER:

1. Since the outbreak of war Mr. E. P. Taylor has occupied the following positions:

Canadian Government—Member, Executive Committee, Department of Munitions & Supply; Joint Director General, Munitions Production, Munitions & Supply; Executive Assistant to the Minister of Munitions & Supply; President, War Supplies Limited; Deputy Member for Canada, Combined Production and Resources Board; Canadian Chairman, Joint War Aid Committee, United States-Canada.

British Government—President and Vice Chairman, British Supply Council in North America; Director General, British Ministry of Supply Mission (formerly British Purchasing, Commission).

2. None.

SELECTIVE SERVICE ADVISORY BOARDS—

E. N. GRIGGS

Mr. KNOWLES:

1. Is there a set of employment and selective service advisory boards, national, regional and local, in operation on a voluntary basis? If so, when were these boards established?

2. Has there been established recently another set of selective service advisory boards on a salary basis? If so, under what date and by what authority?

3. In what way do the functions of the boards referred to in question (2) differ from those of boards referred to in question (1)?

4. What position does Mr. E. N. Griggs occupy in the government service? What salary is he paid by the government?

5. How many selective service regional advisory directors have been appointed, and what are their salaries?

Mr. MARTIN:

1. There are national and regional selective service advisory boards, also national, regional and local employment committees, all on a voluntary basis.

The national selective service advisory board was established by P.C. 2254, March 21, 1942.

The regional selective service advisory boards were established by P.C. 512, January 28, 1944.

The national employment committee was established September 23, 1941.

Five regional committees have been established by the unemployment insurance commission throughout the dominion.

Local employment committees, of which there are now forty-five, are established whenever the regional committee recommends their establishment or the local employment situation indicates that they are necessary.

2. & 3. See reply to question 1.

4. Mr. E. N. Griggs is regional director, national selective service, prairie region. His salary is $1,800 per annum.

5. Four regional directors, national selective service, have been appointed. Their salaries are as follows: Pacific regional director, $4,500 per annum; Prairie regional director, $1,800 per annum; Ontario regional director, $4,800 per annum; Quebec regional director, $4,800 per annum.