

Canadian National Railways and Air Canada

they sold the Bessborough Hotel for $1,600,000 after spending half a million dollars putting in a tunnel to the parking lot. He was not able to explain that. He was not able to explain the reason for the tower. However, he will be retiring. I suggest this government should then appoint an expert to run the railroad. It should appoint someone who will bring new life to the operations of that company.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Not Edgar Benson.

Mr. Peters: My colleague says, not the former minister of finance. I can tell my colleague that the Hon. Edgar Benson would be a great improvement over many of the present vice-presidents of the CNR. He might not do a bad job of running it.

May I call it ten o'clock, Mr. Speaker?

[Translation]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Boulanger): It being ten o'clock, this House stands adjourned until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

At ten o'clock, the House adjourned.
