

or the person administering the government of Canada; nor use offensive words against either House, or against any member thereof. No member may reflect upon any vote of the House, except for the purpose of moving that such vote be rescinded.

36. When the question under discussion does not appear on the order paper or has not been printed and distributed, any member may require it to be read at any time of the debate, but not so as to interrupt a member while speaking.

Reading the question.

37. (1) No member may speak twice to a question except in explanation of a material part of his speech which may have been misquoted or misunderstood, but then he is not to introduce any new matter, and no debate shall be allowed upon such explanation.

No member to speak twice.

(2) A reply shall be allowed to a member who has moved a substantive motion, but not to the mover of an

Reply.