

back as to the active line,
which means I suppose that Mastys will get commands.
It is all a bit disappointing
and depressing.

The Royal Scots
albanes is informed, and I understand, in confidence, that National Defence contemplates granting a special dress distinction for the act of 22nd April 1915.

Have you seen Picot Lally? I hope he keeps very well and is in good spirits.

I trust Lady Anne yourself
this morning and James are very fit.
and that James has not had any set back.
My kindest regards to all
Yours very sincerely
Johnnie MacVicar
