

Suits, where the cause shall arise before Aug. 1, 1792, to be commenced within six years.

9. And be it further enacted, That where any cause of action shall have arisen before the first day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, no suit or complaint shall be commenced thereon at the distance of more than six years from the time when such cause of action arose.

10. And be it further enacted, That the said chief justice, or any person or persons appointed by him for that purpose, under his hand and seal, shall have power to grant administration of the effects of intestates, and the probate of wills; and that the effects of deceased persons shall not be administered within the island of Newfoundland, or on the islands and seas aforesaid; or on the banks of Newfoundland, unless administration thereof, or probate of wills respecting the same, shall have been duly granted by such authority as aforesaid.

31 Geo. III, cap. 29, continued till the opening of the supreme court.

11. And be it further enacted, That an act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, An act for establishing a court of civil jurisdiction in the island of Newfoundland, for a limited time, which act was to have continued in force from the tenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, for one year, and unto the end of the then next session
