

Alberta is the last great wheat belt of the continent. In 1900, 783, 135 bushels were harvested from 42,582 acres. In 1917, 53 859,254 bushels from 2,897,340 acres, realized $107,718,503 in gold.