HARD COAL TRUST
AGAIN UNDER FIRE

Railways and Colliers Alleged to Be in Improper Combination.

CONTRACTS EVADE LAW

U. S. District Court Asked to Block Transportation of Coal.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 13.—(Can. Press.)—Further prosecution of the "hard coal trust" was begun today by the federal government in a civil suit against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Co. and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal Co., charging violations of both the Sherman anti-trust law and the commodities clause of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Arrangements and contracts between the two defendant corporations, which have practically common stockholders, are declared to be simply devices to avoid the prohibitions of the Interstate Commerce Act, and are said to have resulted in giving the coal company a monopoly of the 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 tons of coal annually produced along the lines of the Lackawanna Railroad.

The U. S. district court is asked to enjoin the railroad from transporting coal mined or bought by it and from delivering such coal to the coal company under existing agreements which constitute a combination in restraint of trade.

Coal Output Controlled.
Nine anthracite carrying railways and the great coal companies united or affiliated with them, the government declares, "have long engrossed the output of the coal fields. Each road directly or thru one or more coal companies, have contrived to gain control over the output of most of the mines served by it, and the sale of the same. This is especially true of coal moving to New York harbor, and as a consequence, the prices of anthracite at the various terminals there are represented monthly by the sellers to a bureau of statistics sustained by them jointly, and the result is then sent out to all of them."

MISS WELLINGTON'S RECITAL

Miss Beatrice M. Wellington, A. T. C. M., of the Faculty of the Conservatory School of Expression, gave a very successful recital at the conservatory last evening. The program was a varied one, beginning with A Parable of Nature, a philosophic review by Madge Irving, showing that life is a pretty much what one's point of view makes it. This first number made a good impression and was followed by "Tears," Coventry Patmore and "Torch of Life," by Henry Newbolt, the variety of expression necessary to the successful delineation of these readings showing the versatility of which Miss Wellington is capable. The scene from "The Rivals," by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, was one of the best of the entire program, the different characters being represented very effectively. Selections from the Dolls' House and "As You Like It" were also rendered. Miss Campbell was supported by Mrs. Fred McCordery and Miss Mabel P. Boddy, A.T.C.M., both of whom contributed to the artistic value of the program.

A Really Sensational Opportunity On Sale Friday and Saturday Only

EVERY PERSIAN LAMB COAT IN THE STORE AT $129.00 and $189.00

Words occupying pages of newspaper space would fail to supply an adequate description of this tremendous money-saving opportunity. We must clear out every Persian Lamb coat in this store before we close our doors on Saturday. You will have first choice if you are here when Big Ben in the City Hall clock strikes 8 on Friday morning.

Now for the details, and the reason why. In anticipation of a repetition of last winter's cold weather, we had our workroom specialize on Persian Lamb coats, and we have had a tremendous stock of Persian Lambs all season. The weather disappointed us. Fur sets had the call this year, and even after the tremendous reductions we had made on Persian Lamb coats since the first of the year, we still find ourselves with a tremendous stock of several hundred Persian Lamb coats.

Good business methods prohibit us carrying this big investment over to next season—hence the tremendous sacrifice that we are making for Friday and Saturday.

Every coat is a Sellers-Gough creation, made in our own exclusive style, and by our own experts, bearing our label guaranteeing the standard of quality that has made this store the largest exclusive fur house in the British Empire.

We have divided the stock into two lots, and have cut the prices in many cases 25 per cent. less than the cost of the raw skin.

ANY $200.00 TO $275.00 LADIES' PERSIAN LAMB COAT--$129.00

This gives you your choice of any coat in this store, price $200.00 to $275.00 for $129.00, in lengths from 30 in. to 40 in. beautifully lined with satin or brocaded silk, all sizes and styles on Friday and Saturday only..... $129.00

WATERWAYS BOARD WASTE OF MONEY

Members of Congress Wax Sarcastic at Expense of U. S. Commission.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(Can. Press.)—Heated discussion of the work of the international joint commission, appointed to settle American-Canadian waterway boundary disputes, developed in the house today during the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. Representative Fitzgerald, chairman of the appropriations committee, made a point of order against a paragraph re-appropriating an unexpended balance for the commission, contending that the appropriations committee should provide for this expense.

Representative Flood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and Garner, in arguing against the point, spoke of large sums expended on the commission and small results obtained.

Representative Townsend of New Jersey described the commission as a "lame duck proposition in which the lame ducks had not been trained to make a show of earning a living." This drew heated replies from Representatives Mann and Cannon of Illinois, who declared that the commission was one of the most important ever created by congress.

The Girls' Club of the Ladies' Journal has undertaken to raise among its members a fund of $1200, to be used for endowing a perpetual scholarship in medicine for Chinese women at the Union Medical College for Women, located at Peking, China, with the understanding that the successive beneficiaries will devote their services to the neglected and suffering among their own sex. June 1, 1913, is the date set for the completion of the fund, and the Journal has promised to subscribe to one-half of the fund, $600, if the members of the club, by small individual contributions, will make up the remaining $600. Only members of the Girls' Club are to be allowed to contribute to the fund, and the money must be earned thru personal effort.

Trips to Bermuda.
Bermuda seems to be just as popular this season as in the past. With its delightful climate, sunshine and flowers, it is drawing more people seeking a change and health than ever before. Situated in mid-Atlantic, 48 hours from New York, it is probably the most accessible resort in the south. The service to and from the islands is maintained by the fine steamers Bermudian, Arcadian and Oriana, leaving New York three times a week. Applications for space on the steamers should be made as long ahead as possible, both for going and returning, so as to be assured of good locations. Illustrated pamphlets, plans, sailings, etc., may be had from the company's offices, A. F. Webster & Co., northeast corner King and Yonge streets.

MINERS INVADED STATE BUILDING
Legislators at Charleston, Va., Given Scare—Police Removed Strikers.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 13.—(Can. Press.)—A series of important developments marked the coal strike situation today. In the coal fields under martial law, 25 miles from here, the militia was using stringent measures to stamp out violence, while in this city it became necessary to sound a riot call to curb a demonstration started in the state building. A legislature, troubled because of charges of bribery, was in session when it was learned that miners and their sympathizers were marching here to take the state capital. At first the truth of the report was questioned, but when a number of miners and others invaded the state building, a riot call was turned in. Chief of Police Albert Guill with the entire police force at his heels, rushed to the state house. The halls of the capital were cleared promptly, a number of persons receiving slight injuries.

The legislature, however, was not disturbed and continued its deliberations altho the commotion caused by the trouble was audible to both the house and senate.

Early tonight warrants were sworn out for "Mother" Jones, well known in labor circles of the country. C. H. Boswell, editor of a socialist paper, Frank Bartley and Paul J. Paulson, said to be connected with the international organization of miners, they are charged with conspiracy and accessories before the fact in the death of Fred Bobbett, one of the victims of the recent riot.

Child Had Bronchitis

Once people get acquainted with the wonderful control which Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine exerts over bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and colds, it is not easy to persuade them that anything else is "just as good." This is why the imitators never get very far.

In 1902 Mrs. Eugene Her, King street, Truro, N.S., wrote as follows: "From an infant one of my children was troubled with bronchitis, and the least cold would aggravate the trouble. We could not get anything to help him, and were often greatly alarmed. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine as a treatment for bronchitis, we used it, and are glad to state that it effected a complete cure. If any of the children take a cold or cough I give this medicine, and have never known it to fail to bring relief."

Mrs. Her now writes that she has since proven this medicine to be a cure for whooping cough, and would not be without it in the house.
