

JOHN CATTO & SON

BOAT CUSHIONS

100 only. Well-Filled Cushions, removable embroidered covers, easily washed, and a most useful cushion for Boating or Verandah purposes.

Baby Pillow Cases

Hemstitched and Embroidered Pillow Cases in fine Irish Linen and Lawn, Hand Embroidered, 12 x 16 inches, beautiful hand-worked designs, easily washed, and a most useful cushion for Boating or Verandah purposes.

Hemstitched Serviettes

Hemstitched Irish Linen Damask Tea Napkins, choice of various designs at these special prices:

Hemstitched Linen Covers

We show a select stock of Hemstitched Plain Linen Tray Cloths, Tea Cloths, Sideboard Covers, European Covers, Washstand Covers, and Pillow Shams, etc., etc.

White Blouses

We have a fine display of this season's White Blouses:

Gloves

Full range of Kid and Fabric Gloves, long and short. In every size and color.

Irish Lace Goods

Collars and Cuffs in full display of all the popular Irish hand-made patterns. Bebe Irish Lace Sets, etc., etc.

MAIL ORDERS CAREFULLY FILLED.

JOHN CATTO & SON
55 to 61 King St. E., Toronto

LAND BILL NOW CALIFORNIA LAW

Governor Johnson Signs It, But Complications National and Sectional Still Beset Bill.

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—(Can. Press.)—California's alien land bill became the law of the state today. Against the protests of Japan and the representations of President Wilson and his personal envoy, Secretary of State Bryan, Gov. Johnson signed the bill, and ninety days after the adjournment of the legislature or on August 10, the act becomes operative.

While the governor was signing the bill, the steamship Korea was passing through the Golden Gate, bearing two distinguished Japanese, one a former pupil of President Wilson, on a mission of investigation.

Meanwhile complications, national and sectional, beset the bill. Over-shadowing all is the outcome of the negotiations now in progress between this country and Japan, which has interpreted the act as discriminatory and offensive.

Gave Way Reluctantly. Within California itself the act has encountered triple hostility, which may delay its activity until Nov. 1, 1913. Democrats opposed state legislation at the time as a matter of party regularity. Nevertheless, so plain to the masses to be the demand for the bill, that after exhausting all parliamentary tactics, the senate gave but one adverse democratic vote, and the assembly but two.

At the expression of this opposition, Theodore Bell, late Democratic candidate for governor and former chairman of the Democratic state central committee, has issued an invitation to his party to submit the issue to the people by invoking the referendum against the bill. He grounds his opposition on two contentions—one, that the bill is unwarranted drastic because it permits leases running three years; and, secondly, because at the present it embarrasses the national administration.

The two visiting Japanese are Soroku Ebaraw of the constitutional party, a member of the house of peers, and Ayao Hattori of the nationalist party, a member of the lower house. On their arrival here they made it plain that they did not come in any official capacity, but merely as representatives of their parties, with a view to learning the actual conditions and prevailing sentiment in California.

Use Gibbons' Toothache Gum—Sold by all druggists. Price 10 Cents.

THE POPULARITY

Of The World's coupon plan is being emphatically emphasized since Thursday, the pennants now being distributed from The World Office, 40 Richmond Street West, Toronto, and 15 Main Street East, Hamilton, are going out in such numbers that the quantity allotted is being exhausted in a very short time. If beautiful decorations, present of these coupons appears on another page of this paper, together with 2c, add 2c postage if it is to go by mail.

CANADA

Develop good character. Nervous headaches, the depressing effect of nervous system, dark cloud of nervousness, some form of paralysis, etc. Nervous Food is not a sedative to dull the decision that his palming, no narcotic or insensitizing to exhilarate him, the future expense of the positively forms new, builds up in the most, the starved and worn.

Nervous Food
Hanson, Bates & Co.

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, May 19.—Pressure is highest tonight over the upper lakes, while an important disturbance is centred in New Mexico. Showers have been almost general today in the maritime provinces, and local in the Ottawa Valley. Elsewhere the weather has been fair.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Vancouver, 50-64; Kamloops, 44-66; Edmonton, 34-66; Calgary, 32-60; Battleford, 36-66; Moose Jaw, 38-66; Winnipeg, 34-66; Port Arthur, 22-52; London, 37-58; Toronto, 39-60; Kingston, 38-58; Ottawa, 42-52; Montreal, 46-66; Quebec, 44-54; St. John, 42-52.

Probabilities.—Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Fair; not much change in temperature. Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence—Fair and cool.

Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Moderate to fresh westerly and northwesterly winds; fair and cool.

Maritime—Fresh westerly and northwesterly winds; generally fair and cool. Superior—Northwesterly to easterly winds; fair today; showers by Wednesday; about the same temperature.

Manitoba—Showers in the new localities, but mostly fair; not much change in temperature. Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fair, with slightly higher temperature.

THE BAROMETER.

8 a.m. 29.71 19 N. W.
Noon 29.71 19 N. W.
2 p.m. 29.71 19 N. W.
4 p.m. 29.71 19 N. W.
8 p.m. 29.71 19 N. W.
Mean of day, 49; difference from average, 4 below; highest, 60; lowest, 23.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

May 19. At. From.
Hesperian, Montreal, Glasgow
Lettitia, Montreal, Glasgow
Minnehaha, New York, London
Campanella, New York, Rotterdam
Granplan, Glasgow, New York
California, Glasgow, New York
Oscar II, Christiansand, New York
Bremen, Bremen, New York
P.P. Wilhelm, Bremen, New York
K.P. Cecilie, Cherbourg, New York
Berlin, Gibraltar, New York

STREET CAR DELAYS

Monday, May 19, 1913.
8.45 a.m.—Fogon broken down on track, Brunswick avenue; 5 minutes' delay to west-bound Harbord cars.

3.45 p.m.—Wagon broken down on track, York and Queen; 5 minutes' delay to east-bound Bloor, Dundas and Queen cars.

12.00 p.m.—Held by train, G. T. R. crossing; 5 minutes' delay to King cars.

4.15 p.m.—Auto stuck on track, Berkeley and Queen; 4 minutes' delay to Broadview and Parliament cars.

7.56 p.m.—Parade, Adelaide and Yonge; 6 minutes' delay to all cars on Yonge.

BIRTHS

MUNRO—At 178 Geoffrey street, on Monday, May 19, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Munro, a son.

DEATHS

CLINKUMBLOOMER—Suddenly, on Monday, May 19, 1913, William H. Clinkumbloomer, at his residence.

Funeral from the residence of his son-in-law, Alton I. Taylor, 312 Symington avenue.

Funeral notice later.

CRAWFORD—At 73 Uxbridge street, on May 17, 1913, Margaret, beloved wife of Samuel Crawford, died.

Funeral from above address Tuesday, May 20, at 2 p.m. Interment in Humboldt Cemetery.

HASTINGS—On Monday, May 19, at her late residence, 1238 Queen St. East, Toronto, Martha Ann, eldest daughter of the late Thos. Hastings, Esq., aged 76 years.

Funeral private, from the above address, on Wednesday, May 21, at 2.30, to St. John's Cemetery, Norway.

MACKENZIE—On Monday, May 19, James Macadam Mackenzie, second son of the late D. K. Mackenzie of St. Thomas, aged 46.

Funeral private on Wednesday from 48 Chestnut Park road. Please do not send flowers.

McDONALD—On Sunday, May 18, 1913, at her late residence, 32 Deane avenue, Susanah McDonald, in her 91st year.

Funeral private on Wednesday, the 21st inst., at 4 p.m. to St. James' Cemetery.

SHEPPARD—On Monday, May 19, 1913, at her late residence, 62 East Charles street, Eliza, widow of the late Richard Sheppard.

Funeral private. Please omit flowers.

THOMPSON—At her residence, 113 Delaware avenue, on Monday, May 19, 1913, Panny, widow of the late D. W. Thompson, aged 55 years.

Funeral from above address Wednesday, the 21st inst., at 3 p.m. to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

WATSON—At the Manor, Fairbank, May 19, 1913, Annie Eleanor Watson, dearly beloved child of the Rev. T. A. and Annie Watson, aged 5 years.

Funeral Wednesday at 1 p.m. Interment at Knox Church Cemetery, Agincourt, Scarborough.

NUT CHOCOLATE CAKE, WHICH MAY BE USED FOR THE GROOM'S CAKE.

Two-thirds cup of butter, 1 cup of sugar, yolks of 4 eggs, 1 cup of sugar, 1 cup of hot mashed potatoes, 2 ounces of melted chocolate, or less; 1/2 cup of sweet milk, 2 cups sifted flour, 3/4 tablespoonful of baking powder, 1 teaspoonful of cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoonful of mace or nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoonful of cloves, 1 cup of nut meats, chopped fine; whites of 4 eggs beaten dry.

Cream the butter; beat in the first cup of sugar. In another bowl beat the yolks of the eggs with the second cup of sugar. Combine the two mixtures. Mash the potatoes and dip lightly into the cup while hot. Add the potatoes and chocolate, which has been melted over hot water. Mix the baking powder, flour, and seasonings together. Add the flour and milk a little at a time as directions for making the white cake. Then add the nut meats, and last of all, the four whites of the eggs. Fold them into the cake mixture, as in making the white cake. Bake in a large tube pan or dripping pan. This cake will cut 40 good-sized pieces. Frost with marshmallow frosting.—Eldora Lockwood Dow, in Woman's World.

Harper, Customs Broker, McKinnon Building, 10 Jordan St., Toronto.

Servia's King to Abdicate

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 19.—(Can. Press.)—King Peter of Servia intends to abdicate as soon as he possibly can after peace between the Balkan states and Turkey has been signed. He plans to return to Geneva, where he lived for many years before he was called to the Servian throne in 1903 after the murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga.

The Servian monarch's intention became known when his emissary arrived here today to find a suitable residence for his majesty.

It is pointed out that the Japanese have not acquired land by violence, and it is urged that they are no more objectionable than Europeans who acquire citizenship, amass wealth and return to their fatherland. Instead of endangering peace and order, they have opened up the resources of California and advanced the prosperity of the state. Inhabitants of the eastern states, some of the papers contend, should be alive to the injustice of California.

The Yordzu considers Gov. Johnson's attitude as an intolerable insult to Japan, which, it says, has always manifested good will and has voluntarily restricted immigration. The paper expresses the hope that a protest will be lodged against the alien land ownership bill recently signed by the governor of California.

There are also certain mental and spiritual preparations. To be intensely interested in anything is fatal to sleep; so also are the memory of a sniffling failure, plan-making, problem-solving, apprehension, shame, and remorse.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

JOHNSON ASSAILED BY TOKIO PAPER

Stand Illiberal, Unjust and Anti-Japanese is Complaint

TOKIO, May 19.—(Can. Press.)—A section of the press bitterly denounces Gov. Johnson's reply to President Wilson as illiberal and unjust, declaring that it is strongly anti-Japanese and that Gov. Johnson is seeking to evade his own responsibility under cover of the national law.

It is pointed out that the Japanese have not acquired land by violence, and it is urged that they are no more objectionable than Europeans who acquire citizenship, amass wealth and return to their fatherland. Instead of endangering peace and order, they have opened up the resources of California and advanced the prosperity of the state. Inhabitants of the eastern states, some of the papers contend, should be alive to the injustice of California.

The Yordzu considers Gov. Johnson's attitude as an intolerable insult to Japan, which, it says, has always manifested good will and has voluntarily restricted immigration. The paper expresses the hope that a protest will be lodged against the alien land ownership bill recently signed by the governor of California.

There are also certain mental and spiritual preparations. To be intensely interested in anything is fatal to sleep; so also are the memory of a sniffling failure, plan-making, problem-solving, apprehension, shame, and remorse.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

A sense of friendliness and peace toward the Infinite is the surest medicine for sleep.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

The soul must take off its interest-ness as the body must remove its vestments. Passions of any kind, cravings, and all heats are against sleep.

One is very fortunate who has a habit of prayer, for there is nothing can still the soul like purging the conscience before God; and, caring, pricking annoyances, dreads, and all mental tensions can be remedied in no way more satisfactorily than by letting the consciousness of God wash the soul.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS OF GUINNESS'S FOREIGN EXTRA STOUT

MESSRS. ARTHUR GUINNESS, SON & CO., LIMITED, of St. James' Gate Brewery, Dublin, find it necessary, from circumstances which have come to their notice, to direct the attention of the public to the following facts with regard to their Foreign Extra Stout, which is supplied to the Canadian Market in bottle only.

- Guinness's Foreign Extra Stout is manufactured of one quality only, and is supplied in common to all Bottlers. Any difference noticeable in the Beer by the consumer must be attributed to the system of bottling, and not to the manufacture.
- Guinness's Foreign Extra Stout is brewed only from Malt and Hops; no substitutes or antiseptics have ever been used in connection with its manufacture.
- Guinness's Foreign Extra Stout must bear Messrs. Guinness's well-known label, on which appears their Trade Mark, the Harp.
- Guinness's Foreign Extra Stout is brewed only at St. James' Gate Brewery, in the City of Dublin, Ireland.

ST. JAMES' GATE BREWERY.

The 20th Century Wonder

THE SELF-ACTING GAS LIGHTER

THE TORONTO WORLD