

ORDERS OF COURT.

Fee Fund Account, and the General Bank Interest Account, all which accounts are to shew correctly the state and condition thereof for the time being.

15. In each of the suitors' accounts there are, from time to time, to be entered the date, purport, or short material contents, of all Decrees, Orders or Reports affecting the same; also, every sum paid into or out of the Court, and by whom paid, and for what paid, and under what authority. There is also to be credited to the account the bank interest computed and included in any Decree, Order or Report, and a corresponding transfer of interest is to be made at the bank. There is likewise to be entered in the account a statement or memorandum of any other matters material for the information of the Court or its officers, or of any of the parties.

16. To facilitate the keeping of the proper accounts, reports of sales are to be set forth briefly the terms of the sale, so far as relates to the payment of purchase money; and other reports affecting money in Court, or to be paid into Court, are to set forth in figures in a schedule a brief summary of the sums found by the Report, and which may be paid or payable into or out of Court.

17. Every deposit on Rehearing, or on a Decree or an Order for Sale, is hereafter, like other moneys, to be paid by the party making the deposit into the bank to the credit of the cause or matter.

18. Money ordered to be paid into Court is to be paid into the Commercial Bank, with the privity of the Registrar or Secretary. All sums of money paid out of Court are to be so paid upon the joint cheque of the Registrar and Secretary, countersigned by one of the Judges, and not otherwise. The 8th sub-section of the 43rd Order of the 3rd of June, 1853, is hereby rescinded.

19. Any person desiring to pay money into Court is to produce to the Registrar or Secretary the Decree or Order, if any, under which the same is payable, and is to file a Præcipe in the form following:

IN CHANCERY:

(Short style of cause.)

Required, a direction to the Bank to receive from—$—, payable into Court to the credit of this cause, under—dated—, (or as the case may be).

A. B., Defendant's Solicitor,
(Date). (or as the case may be).

20. The Bank, on receiving any sum of money to the credit of any cause or matter, is to prepare a receipt therefor in duplicate; and one copy is to be delivered to the party making the deposit, and the other is to be posted or delivered on the same day, addressed to the Court.

21. Cheques may be prepared by either the Registrar or Secretary, and are to be signed by both.

22. The person entitled to a cheque is to produce and leave with the Registrar or Secretary the Decrees, Orders and Reports entitling such person to the money, and is to file a Præcipe in the form following:

IN CHANCERY:

(Short style of cause.)

Required a Cheque for $—[with $— interest thereon from—to—(being the period, if any, for which interest is payable under the Decree or Order of the Court, but has not been already taken into account and computed)], payable to—; and the following papers are produced herewith (naming the Decrees, Reports, &c., shewing the party's right to the Cheque, thus:

Decree dated—,
Report dated—, &c.)

A. B., Plaintiff's Solicitor,
(Date) (or as the case may be).

23. If the Registrar, in case the application is to him, finds the party entitled as mentioned in the Præcipe, he is to prepare and sign the cheque accordingly, computing the interest, if any, that is payable therewith, and inserting the amount in the cheque; and he is then to deliver to the Secretary the cheque and the papers produced to shew the party to be entitled thereto; and the Secretary is to examine the papers produced, and, on verifying the party's right to the sums mentioned in the cheque, he is to add his signature to the cheque, and to procure the same to be countersigned by a Judge.

24. When the Secretary prepares the cheque, the same is to be examined by the Registrar in the same manner, and is to be signed by him and countersigned by the Judge.

25. The Decrees, Orders, and Reports, produced as aforesaid, are to be redelivered to the party entitled thereto, with the cheque.

26. The Balance Book is to contain a statement entered therein quarterly, of the balances at the credit of the various accounts in the ledger at the date of such statement, such balances are to be made up on the 1st of January, 1st of April, 1st of July, and 1st of October of every year, after a comparison of the accounts in the ledger with the bank's accounts. This comparison is to be made by the Registrar and Secretary jointly, and the list entered in the balance book is to be signed therein by the Registrar and Secretary.

27. In the Book of Investments are to be entered, under the heading of the cause or matter in which any mortgage or other security has been taken by the order of the Court in the name of the Registrar or any other Officer of the Court, the date and short material contents of such mortgage, and of all subsequent orders and proceedings in relation thereto, until such mortgage is discharged by the order of the Court.

28. A list, signed by the Registrar and Secretary, of all the mortgages outstanding on
