

The Interior of the Basilica

The pulpit shown at the right is considered one of the most elaborate and expensive pulpits in any of the Catholic churches today and is made of solid marble. This is also true of the pedestal that supports the large statue of Ste. Anne and child. Paintings and statues are very prominent and numerous throughout the entire edifice.