Simpson C. and M. team easily defeated Riverdale in a league game on Saturday at St. Andrew's College. After disposing of Riverdale for 29 runs, the home team compiled a total of 107. Cole (35), Fletcher (21) and Mason (14) were high scorers. Chester, with 11. was the only Riverdale batsman to reach double figures. Both teams were smart in the field. The result of this game places Simpsons at the top of the league, and has somewhat lessened the chances of Riverdale, they having lost three games.

Bedford Park won the toss and elected to take first innings, sending in Ellis and ballard to the bowling of Scott and B. Agey. Runs came with difficulty, and two wickets were down for 12, when R. Gunn was joined by his captain, D. Gunn. The score steadily mounted, and B. Adgey gave way to Scalfe, the former acting as wicket-keeper.

The change in the attack was successful, R. Gunn being cleverly stumped off one of Scalfe's "googles." D. Gunn continued to bat with confidence, and twice sent the ball to the boundary. When his score stood at 15 he was out to a brilliant catch by Brown in the deep field, the catcher being slightly hurt by coming in contact with the boundary wall. Useful contributions were made by Cecley (1) and M. Thompson (7), the score eventually reaching 88, of which W. Lock made 12 (not out) by forceful cricket. Scalfe, a new capture by Eatons, was the most successful bowler, his five wickets costing on an average 8.4 runs each.

Eatons commenced their task of rubbings of the 69 runs required for victory by sending in Brown and Hobb to face the bowling of Hirst and Young. The flery nature of the pitch caused Hirst's deliveries to get up very awkwardly, and the batamen were repeatedly struck on the body by rising balls. B. Adgey was rendered hors de combat on two occasions. Pooley was the only Eatons in cluded two fine boundary hits. Mr. Extras was responsible for II in Eatons' total of 36, at the first bowled very well so or his four wickets, but D. Gunn, who is a distant relative of the famous Notting.
